Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We are all the servants at Cana. Each of us, at various times, finds ourselves confused and unsure, empty where we should be full, unprepared where we should be ready. When we falter, Mary's words give us direction: "Do whatever he tells you."

Devotions, Explained!

The Angelus is an ancient devotion whose practice developed over the course of several centuries. It is composed of three antiphons that tell the story of the annunciation, each followed by a Hail Mary. It is usually said daily at noon.

Prayer for the Miraculous

Oh God,
Oh God beyond my understanding,
Bring Your soul-stirring power
into my life today.
In the places where people are saying, "It can't be done" or
"There's no solution," act in such a way that responds: "There is a way, and there is a God, and He loves me."

Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A friend invited me to an invitation-only wine-tasting event. There were over two hundred varieties of wine. Having no idea how to approach such a massive selection, I wandered aimlessly among the tables, sipping this and that. At the end of the evening my friend asked if I had tried some of the exceptionally expensive wines. I hadn't. "The really good stuff disappears first," he said. "My man, you missed out on some amazing vino." I was so disappointed. I wasted my chance for amazing once-in-a-lifetime wine. The wine I tasted was, well, blah.

Don't we often feel a similar disappointment in life? I missed this or that opportunity. If only I had known. Optimism sputters and fades. The glory days are gone. The chances, it seems, for the really great things in life come and go so quickly. Then they are gone forever. The good stuff goes first. Then life is just blah.

Not so with the Lord Jesus. In Jesus' miracle at the wedding at Cana, the steward of the feast says, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then...an inferior one" (John 2:10). That's the natural downward progression of life. The good stuff disappears quickly. But he says of the groom (who symbolizes Jesus), "But you have kept the good wine until now." This is the ever-improving trajectory of the realm of God's grace. With Jesus, the "good wine" of divine love, hope and peace gets better as our journey of faith progresses. Where are your greatest disappointments? Don't give in to the lie that the really good stuff is gone. Tell Jesus you've run out. Then learn how to taste that amazingly good wine, because he saves the best until now.

— Father John Muir

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you."
- Jn 2:3-5

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Isaiah spoke of God's delight in Jerusalem and desire to see Israel as His spouse. What married couples do you know who genuinely take delight in each other?

Second Reading:

Paul taught the Corinthians that the gifts of the Holy Spirit to individuals are meant to benefit and unify the community. What gifts do you have that you think benefit others?

Gospel:

After all the wine was consumed, Jesus turned water into wine for the bride and groom at the wedding. When have you received an unexpected gift from someone?

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: Sometimes we forget, or even refuse, to bring small concerns and inconveniences to God because we think we should be able to handle them on our own. What a ridiculous attitude that is — as if we could handle anything on our own.

Do Whatever He Tells You

I once ran out of pizza at my kid's birthday party.

Everyone told me it wasn't a big deal but come on. It was a disaster. I had invited all these people over. They showed up with presents and sang "Happy Birthday" and stood around patiently while my kid ripped through his cache of gifts. The very least they were expecting was to be fed sufficiently.

I'll tell you what, I sure could have used the Blessed Mother that night.

I love the story of the wedding at Cana because it's such a silly little miracle. I don't mean to be disrespectful — of course it's an incredibly important moment in Christ's public life. But it's not healing a leper. It's not raising the dead. It's not even walking on water. It's saving a young couple from embarrassment.

I think sometimes we forget, or even refuse, to bring small concerns and inconveniences to God because we think we should be able to handle them on our own. What a ridiculous attitude that is — as if we could handle anything on our own. It's so fitting that Mary, ever the observant Mother, is the one to bring the matter to Jesus' attention. He asks her what this problem has to do with him. She doesn't answer him, because, between you and me, I don't think he's asking her. I think he's asking us. All she does is tell the waiters what I consider to be the best piece of advice in all of Scripture: "Do whatever he tells you."

I'm so quick to throw up my hands and feel sorry for myself when I encounter a barrier in my life. What I should be doing is taking the matter to God, and then doing whatever He tells me.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why do some dioceses move holy days, or not even celebrate them at all. Doesn't everyone do the same thing?

Answer:

The short answer is no, not everyone does the same thing. Although the Church is universal, there are many local customs and saints that each country, sometimes just a region, will honor. For example, feast days and patronal days may not be major feast days on the Church's universal calendar, but are celebrated as such in one place. Holy days of obligation are the same way. The US Conference of Catholic Bishops has a certain amount of discretion in choosing days which best reflect the local church's experience and history.

Another reason certain feasts are moved is a practical one. With limited clergy, or a great difficulty for people to get to Mass, the feast day may be transferred to a Sunday. The rationale is that if a significant feast should be part of the Church's celebration, then better to do so on a Sunday when people and clergy are available, rather than try to fit it on a day when one or both cannot be there.

Christmas and the Immaculate Conception are always observed as days of obligation. In the USA we celebrate six holy days of obligation. There are also other special days and they are ranked, in order of importance as solemnity, feast, memorial and optional memorial.

This is to inform you that St. Anne Religious Education Program will present a program called the Circle of Grace to our students on February 5, 2025. This program is a part of our ongoing effort to help children and youth understand their own dignity and self-worth, to help create and maintain a safe environment for children and youth, and to give children, youth, and parents the tools to protect our most vulnerable ones from sexual abuse. The lessons are all age appropriate, and they are intended to supplement the parents' rightful role as first teachers of the faith.

These lessons are required for all dioceses in the United States, and we strongly encourage all parents to allow your child to participate. However, as a parent, you do have the right to opt your child out of these lessons. Regardless of what you decide, we encourage you to read the attached materials so you'll be aware of the nature of the Circle of Grace program. If you have questions about the program or the lesson, please contact Pam Richter at 870-423-3927. If you determine that you DO NOT want your child to participate, please visit the parish office to sign the "opt-out" form no later than January 29, 2025.

For more information on the Circle of Grace program, visit Circle of Grace Online™ website at www.dolr.org.

La presente es para informarles que Programa de educación religiosa de Santa Ana presentará un programa titulado Círculo de Gracia a nuestros estudiantes el 5 de febrero de 2025. Este programa es parte de nuestra continua labor para ayudar a los niños y jóvenes a comprender su propia dignidad y valor, ayudar a crear y mantener un ambiente seguro para los niños y jóvenes, y proporcionarles a los jóvenes, niños y padres de familia las herramientas para proteger a los más vulnerables del abuso sexual. Las lecciones son de acuerdo a su edad, y su objetivo es complementar la misión legítima que tienen los padres de familia como primeros maestros de la fe.

Se requieren estas lecciones en todas las diócesis en los Estados Unidos, y alentamos encarecidamente a los padres de familia a que permitan la participación de su hijo(a). Sin embargo, como padres de familia, ustedes tienen el derecho de excluir voluntariamente a su hijo(a) de estas lecciones. Independientemente de su decisión, los alentamos a que lean los materiales adjuntos para que estén al tanto de la naturaleza del programa Círculo de Gracia. Si tienen cualquier pregunta sobre el programa o la lección, por favor comuníquense con Pam Richter al 870-423-3927. Si deciden que NO desean que participe su hijo(a), visite la oficina parroquial para firmar el formulario de "exclusión voluntaria" a más tardar el 29 de enero de 2025.

The Black and Indian Mission Collection will be taken up on January 26, 2025. This collection was established in 1884, bringing Christ's light to the Black, American Indian, Eskimo and Aleute communities of the United States. The funds are distributed as grants to dioceses throughout the country, supporting and helping to strengthen evangelization programs which otherwise would cease. The Diocese of Little Rock receives some of these grants each year which support certain ministries around the state who specialize in helping the Black and Indian communities.

Door Of Faith

The African American and Native American communities have been blessed with many outstanding heroes. Discover these lasting examples of faith, hope, and love in action!

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us
