Catholic Campaign for Human Development

Next weekend is the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Currently 38 million people live in poverty. This collection funds programs that empower local communities across the country to address the challenges they face. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development identifies and addresses the unique obstacles people encounter as they work to lift themselves out of poverty. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. By supporting this Collection, you will be giving those living on the margins a hand up. Thank you for being generous.

Remember, we will have our All Soul's Altar during the month of November. You can start bringing in pictures of your deceased loved ones and leave them in the marked bin in the back of the church. Please label all pictures.

"National Vocation Awareness Week" will be celebrated in our country November 6-12, 2022 . Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation."

Prayer For Vocations

Loving God, you call all who believe in you to grow perfect in love by following in the footsteps of Christ your Son.

Call from among us more men and women who will serve you as religious. By their way of life, may they provide a convincing sign of your Kingdom for the Church and the whole world.

We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Gracious and loving God, help the men and women of our parish to hear the call to serve in the Diocese of Little Rock.

Our needs are great and our people thirst for your presence.

Open the hearts of many, raise up faithful servants of the Gospel, dedicated, holy priests, sisters, brothers and deacons, who will spend themselves for your people and their needs.

Bless those who are serving now with courage and perseverance.

Grant that many will be inspired by their example and faith.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

THE END OF DAYS

As we prepare for next Sunday's feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we hear descriptions of dire and catastrophic events. Sometimes it seems as though we ourselves are living in the end times, when life as we currently know it will cease for everyone. In answer to what must have been a fearful question, Jesus does not sugarcoat his foretelling of future days. Nor does the Old Testament prophet Malachi flinch from his pronouncements upon an evil world. Saint Paul, still writing to the Thessalonians, warns them prophetically against succumbing to "The End Is Near" syndrome—indolence in the face of the final days. However, both Jesus and Malachi speak of the recompense for living a just life—healing and vindication. Our Psalm 98, typically associated with Christmastime, helps us to rejoice for the King who is coming to rule with justice.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

I should no longer say that I have neighbors to help, but that I must myself be a neighbor to others.

—Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, no. 81

For more than 50 years, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has supported organizations that combat poverty and improve the lives of people in communities across the United States. From empowering immigrants in towns along the southern border to advocating for improved housing and educational opportunities in northern and midwestern cities, CCHD-funded groups tackle a wide range of economic and social justice challenges that affect local communities in rural and urban areas.

In areas of Tennessee where coal-mining operations and landfills have caused water pollution and other environmental damage, Statewide Organizing for Community eMpowerment (SOCM) works with governments and regulatory agencies to limit hazardous waste disposal in landfills and to require environmental cleanup as part of the permitting process for new business operations.

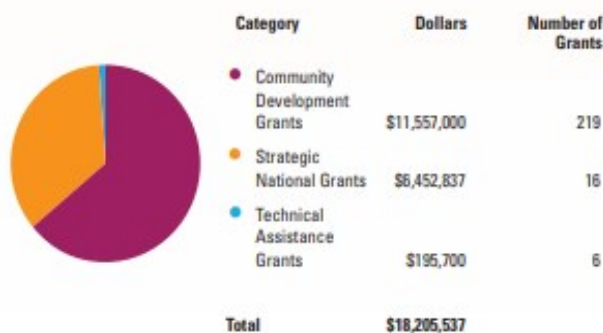

Environmental damage affects all of us, most especially low-income people who are affected by water pollution resulting from mineral extraction, lack of access to healthy foods in urban “food deserts,” and natural disasters caused by climate change. The Church teaches that “the natural environment is a collective good, the patrimony of all humanity and the responsibility of everyone” (Pope Francis, Laudato Si', no. 95). Since the release of Laudato Si' in 2015, CCHD has invested more than $4.3 million in organizations that work to protect the environment and combat pollution. When you support CCHD, you support organizations that work to protect the air, soil, and water for all the members of their communities.

CAMPAÑA CATÓLICA PARA EL DESARROLLO HUMANO TRABAJANDO DESDE LA PERIFERIA

Entonces, ya no digo que tengo "prójimos" a quienes debo ayudar, sino que me siento llamado a volverme yo un prójimo de los otros.

—Papa Francisco, Fratelli Tutti, no. 81

Por más de 50 años, la Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano (CCHD) ha apoyado a organizaciones que luchan contra la pobreza y mejoran la vida de las personas en comunidades en Estados Unidos. Desde capacitar a los inmigrantes en los pueblos a lo largo de la frontera sur hasta abogar por mejores oportunidades para la vivienda y la educación en ciudades del norte y del medio oeste, los grupos financiados por CCHD se enfrentan a una gran cantidad de desafíos económicos y de justicia social que afectan a las comunidades locales en áreas urbanas y rurales.

En áreas de Tennessee, en donde las operaciones para la extracción del carbón y para el relleno sanitario han causado la contaminación del agua y otros daños ambientales, el Statewide Organizing for Community eMpowerment (SOCM) trabaja con el gobierno y las agencias reguladoras a fin de limitar la eliminación de desechos peligrosos en los rellenos sanitarios y para exigir la limpieza ambiental como parte del proceso para la obtención de permisos en las nuevas operaciones comerciales.

El daño ambiental nos afecta a todos, pero especialmente a las personas de bajos recursos quienes son afectadas por la contaminación del agua que resulta de la extracción del mineral, por la falta de acceso a alimentos saludables en los "desiertos alimentarios" urbanos y los desastres naturales causados por el cambio climático. La Iglesia enseña que "El medio ambiente es un bien colectivo, patrimonio de toda la humanidad y responsabilidad de todos" (Papa Francisco, Laudato Si', no. 95). Desde la publicación de Laudato Si' en el 2015, CCHD ha invertido más de $4.3 millones en organizaciones que trabajan para proteger el ambiente y combatir la contaminación. Cuando ustedes apoyan a CCHD, están apoyando a organizaciones que trabajan para proteger el aire, el suelo y el agua para todos los miembros de sus comunidades.

St. Vincent de Paul Christmas Program

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is asking for help with our annual family Christmas program.

- We will have tubs in the back of the church (until after Thanksgiving) to collect stocking stuffers for kids and non food items for their families. There is a list of suggested items attached to the collection tubs but feel free to contribute to the list!
- We need volunteers to help shop for toys and clothing. If you are interested in being on the list for this, call Elsa at the store at 870-423-3572.
- Monetary donations are always appreciated and will be used to buy gifts and food for the families we are helping. You can bring a donation to the store or mail it to 1844 Hwy 62 Berryville, AR.
- Last, but not least, prayers for the success of our program and the families we are helping are always needed! Keep us all in your prayers! St. Vincent de Paul, pray for us!

THE WORK OF DISCIPLESHIP

It is easy to go through life non-reflectively, living the routines of our days and weeks without giving much thought to the larger questions of meaning, purpose, and calling. We may know we need to change but put it off, thinking we'll love, serve, and care more in the future. We may face trial personally and be weary of trying to live as we know we should. We witness discord, violence, and division and it may feel that it is the end of the world. Today's readings urge us to put laziness, fear, or distraction aside and get about the work of discipleship with the assurance that the Lord will provide what we need as we do so.

THE SUN OF JUSTICE WILL ARISE

It may seem as though Jesus is talking directly to us in today's Gospel. While it is always true that the Gospel speaks across time and space, today's message feels particularly appropriate as we near the end of another year that has been filled with pandemic, political division, international tension, and economic concerns. Christ reigns over all these things, and as Christians, we hold firm in the belief that we will as well. We must take the long view—the truly long view of eternity—as we meet the challenges of our time. The sun of justice will arise. All will be well.

NOT A HAIR ON YOUR HEAD WILL BE DESTROYED. PERSEVERE.

The message of the Gospel is not abstract, nor are we distant hearers of its message. We face choices every day about how we will live, what we will or won't do, how seriously we will take Christ's call to live the truth of the gospel. At times, the choices we face seem inconsequential: will we sit on the sofa night after night, or choose to spend time with family or serve in our parish? Will we get up for Mass on Sunday morning ready to praise God and be part of our faith community, or drag ourselves there, grumbling every step of the way (or not go at all)? Choices such as these are of consequence of course, not only because each decision matters, but the patterns we establish in our lives are rooted in the cumulative weight of the choices we make. We may be called upon to make harder choices and must be prepared to do so. Jesus tells us to persevere. By doing so, we will secure our lives.

LA TRABAJO DEL DISCIPULADO

Es fácil pasar por la vida sin reflexionar, viviendo las rutinas de nuestros días y semanas sin pensar mucho en las cuestiones más amplias de significado, propósito y vocación. Puede que sepamos que necesitamos cambiar, pero lo posponemos, pensando que amaremos, serviremos y nos preocuparemos más en el futuro. Puede que nos enfrentemos personalmente a las pruebas y nos cansemos de intentar vivir como sabemos que deberíamos. Somos testigos de la discordia, la violencia y la división y podemos sentir que es el fin del mundo. Las lecturas de hoy nos instan a dejar de lado la pereza, el miedo o la distracción y a ponernos a trabajar en el discipulado con la seguridad de que el Señor nos proporcionará lo que necesitamos mientras lo hacemos.

EL SOL DE LA JUSTICIA SALDRÁ

Puede parecer que Jesús se dirige directamente a nosotros en el Evangelio de hoy. Aunque siempre es cierto que el Evangelio habla a través del tiempo y el espacio, el mensaje de hoy se siente especialmente apropiado cuando nos acercamos al final de otro año que ha estado lleno de pandemias, divisiones políticas, tensiones internacionales y preocupaciones económicas. Cristo reina sobre todas estas cosas y, como cristianos, nos mantenemos firmes en la creencia de que nosotros también lo haremos. Debemos tener una visión a largo plazo —la verdadera visión a largo plazo de la eternidad— para hacer frente a los desafíos de nuestro tiempo. El sol de la justicia saldrá. Todo saldrá bien.

NO SE DESTRUIRÁ NI UN PELO DE TU CABEZA. PERSEVERE.

El mensaje del Evangelio no es abstracto, ni nosotros somos oyentes distantes de su mensaje. Cada día nos enfrentamos a decisiones sobre cómo vamos a vivir, qué vamos a hacer o no, hasta qué punto vamos a tomarnos en serio la llamada de Cristo a vivir la verdad del Evangelio. A veces, las decisiones que tomamos parecen intrascendentes: ¿nos sentaremos en el sofá noche tras noche, o elegiremos pasar tiempo con la familia o servir en nuestra parroquia? ¿Nos levantaremos para ir a misa el domingo por la mañana dispuestos a alabar a Dios y a formar parte de nuestra comunidad de fe, o nos arrastraremos hasta allí, refunfuñando a cada paso (o no iremos en absoluto)? Este tipo de elecciones tienen consecuencias, por supuesto, no sólo porque cada decisión es importante, sino porque los patrones que establecemos en nuestras vidas se basan en el peso acumulado de las elecciones que hacemos. Puede que se nos pida que tomemos decisiones más difíciles y debemos estar preparados para ello. Jesús nos dice que perseveremos. Al hacerlo, aseguraremos nuestra vida.

Saints Peter and Paul

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp to expand your knowledge of sacred art. In this episode on FORMED, they discuss an icon depicting Sts. Peter and Paul.

St. Giuseppe Moscati

Giuseppe Moscati, "the holy physician of Naples," was a medical doctor and layman in the early twentieth century who came from an aristocratic family and devoted his medical career to serving the poor. Watch this beautiful film to be inspired by the example of this holy man.

St. Frances Cabrini

No one would have assumed that a sickly girl from Italy would be accepted into a convent nor travel far from home. Yet, St. Frances went on to prove both assumptions incorrect, becoming a nun and missionary who would establish schools, orphanages and hospitals all across America.
