Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE LIGHT OF SERVICE

The prophet Isaiah inspires us with these words: "Light shall rise for you in the darkness, and the gloom shall become for you like midday." All of us celebrating the liturgy today praise God for these words of encouragement. Surely each of us knows the gloomy side of life, but today's readings propose a brilliant antidote to misery: the light of service. Isaiah focuses on physical suffering, telling us to provide food, clothing, housing, and equal opportunity to those with limited resources. Moving beyond material needs, Saint Paul demonstrates how to proceed humbly when attending to people's spiritual needs. Saint Matthew's Gospel stirs us to bold action: whatever gifts we have, we must put them at the service of our communities. As Christians, we must engage with one another without holding back, letting our light shine before all.

CATHOLIC PRAYER CORNER

Prayer in Time of Illness

Lord Jesus,
I believe that having passed through the gate of life in baptism,
I will always have your protection and comfort.
Yet today the pains of my illness threaten to overcome me and cause me to forget all the good things you have given me in this life.
I pray in confidence that you would send forth your Spirit to refresh and revive me as you have always done in the past.
May I continue to witness to your goodness in this life so that I may be with you at the heavenly banquet table in eternity.

Amen. Alleluia.

OUR FASCINATING FAITH

Our Lady of Lourdes (February 11)

On February 11, 1858, fourteen-year-old Bernadette Soubirous, the oldest of nine children in a poor family from Lourdes, France, saw Our Lady in the first of eighteen apparitions. At the grotto of Massabielle, Bernadette saw "a small lady in white" who invited her to return each day. During the visions the Lady communicated a message of penance, instructed Bernadette to dig so that a spring of water began to flow, requested that a chapel be built there at the grotto, and eventually identified herself by saying "I am the Immaculate Conception." Throughout these apparitions, Our Lady addressed Bernadette in a formal way, treating the humble girl with dignity. In 1862 the authenticity of the apparitions was confirmed by Church authorities. The Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes was recognized worldwide in 1907. Lourdes became a place of pilgrimage for thousands of the faithful; their faith and the faith of many others was revitalized through the story of a simple young girl from rural France.

"Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds
and glorify your heavenly Father."

Matthew 5:16

COMMUNITY OF LIGHT

Today's readings from Isaiah and Matthew evoke the powerful metaphor of light as an image of the community gathered by God. Jesus speaks of his followers as "light of the world": they are not the source of light, but a mirror reflecting the brightness of God. This light does not call attention to itself, but enables beauty to be revealed and celebrated, and sinfulness to be exposed and healed. The light of this community is not primarily for itself, but fulfills its purpose when it shines upon the world. The light that we the Church bring to our world can be hidden by "bushels" sometimes imposed by others and sometimes of our own making. Our lights may flicker and die under stress. What might sustain the brightness of our own small light? Our ongoing practices of community prayer, discernment, and action allow God to illumine our Church, day by day.

LEARNING HOW TO BE CHURCH

Following last week's passage from Matthew with the Beatitudes, today we continue Jesus' Sermon on the Mount with his images of salt, light, and a city. Jesus moves from describing the core identity of the community he has gathered to considering its impact on the world. He wanted his community not just to claim its identity, but to live it out. He wanted his community to journey with him, to fully learn what this might mean.

For us, being salt for others may mean engaging and enriching the lives of our neighbors. Being light may mean illuminating and addressing the world's systems that sustain social sins of violence, racism, and vast inequalities of wealth and opportunity. Being a city set high may mean holding to high standards of transparency, respect, and care for each other. Like Jesus' first followers, we are invited to travel the difficult and joy-filled road of learning and re-learning how to be the Church.

CROSS-SHAPED MINISTRY

Saint Paul, in today's passage from First Corinthians, admits he is not a salesman. He did not come to Corinth with a sales pitch, with skilled rhetoric and worldly wisdom. Paul says that he simply came to speak of Christ crucified. For Paul, the cross is God's primary self-revelation, and the whole life of following Christ is marked by it. Paul describes this cross-shaped ministry by how he first preached it: with humility and fear. He was a messenger who looked weak by the standards of society, in order that the Spirit might break through to his listeners.

We may know or have read of those who spoke or lived with a cross-shaped presence. Perhaps a missionary who humbly served a community while preaching Christ. Or a group of protesters against injustice, who faced violent resistance with dignity and persistence. They open a space for the Spirit to transform hearts. Paul suggests that making ourselves vulnerable makes love possible.

QUINTO Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

5 de febrero de 2023

“Brille la luz de ustedes ante los hombres,
para que viendo las buenas obras que ustedes hacen,
den gloria a su Padre, que está en los cielos.”

Mateo 5:16

COMUNIDAD DE LUZ

Las lecturas de hoy de Isaías y Mateo evocan la poderosa metáfora de la luz como imagen de la comunidad reunida por Dios. Jesús habla de sus seguidores como “luz del mundo”: no son la fuente de luz, sino un espejo que refleja el resplandor de Dios. Esta luz no llama la atención sobre sí misma, sino que permite revelar y celebrar la belleza y exponer y sanar el pecado. La luz de esta comunidad no es principalmente para sí misma, sino que cumple su propósito cuando brilla sobre el mundo. La luz que nosotros, la Iglesia, aportamos a nuestro mundo puede quedar oculta por “matorrales” a veces impuestos por otros y a veces de nuestra propia cosecha. Nuestras luces pueden parpadear y morir bajo el estrés. ¿Qué puede sostener el brillo de nuestra pequeña luz? Nuestras prácticas continuas de oración comunitaria, discernimiento y acción permiten a Dios iluminar nuestra Iglesia, día a día.

APRENDER A SER IGLESIA

Tras el pasaje de Mateo de la semana pasada con las Bienaventuranzas, hoy continuamos el Sermón de la Montaña de Jesús con sus imágenes de la sal, la luz y una ciudad. Jesús pasa de describir la identidad básica de la comunidad que ha reunido a considerar su impacto en el mundo. Quería que su comunidad no sólo reivindicara su identidad, sino que la viviera. Quería que su comunidad caminara con él, que aprendiera plenamente lo que esto podía significar.

Para nosotros, ser sal para los demás puede significar comprometernos y enriquecer la vida de nuestros vecinos. Ser luz puede significar iluminar y abordar los sistemas del mundo que sostienen los pecados sociales de la violencia, el racismo y las grandes desigualdades de riqueza y oportunidades. Ser una ciudad elevada puede significar mantener un alto nivel de transparencia, respeto y cuidado mutuo. Como los primeros seguidores de Jesús, se nos invita a recorrer el difícil y gozoso camino de aprender y reaprender a ser Iglesia.

MINISTERIO EN FORMA DE CRUZ

San Pablo, en el pasaje de hoy de la primera epístola a los Corintios, admite que no es un vendedor. No vino a Corinto con un discurso de venta, con una retórica hábil y una sabiduría mundana. Pablo dice que simplemente vino a hablar de Cristo crucificado. Para Pablo, la cruz es la principal revelación de Dios, y toda la vida de seguimiento de Cristo está marcada por ella. Pablo describe este ministerio en forma de cruz por cómo lo predicó al principio: con humildad y temor. Era un mensajero que parecía débil según las normas de la sociedad, para que el Espíritu pudiera llegar a sus oyentes.

Puede que conozcamos o hayamos leído sobre quienes hablaron o vivieron con una presencia en forma de cruz. Tal vez un misionero que sirvió humildemente a una comunidad mientras predicaba a Cristo. O un grupo de manifestantes contra la injusticia, que se enfrentaron a la resistencia violenta con dignidad y persistencia. Abren un espacio para que el Espíritu transforme los corazones. Pablo sugiere que hacernos vulnerables hace posible el amor.
