Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Maybe I'm weird, but I like spending time in doctor's offices, confession lines in churches, auto repair shops, prison cells, and support groups of various kinds. It's refreshing to be with people who humbly admit something is wrong and forthrightly set out on a path toward a solution. When we ignore what is off kilter, we become alone and fragile. In places where people are honest and hopeful about brokenness, sturdy if subtle fellowship usually ensues.

Consider the image we see of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark. "...they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by a demon. The whole town was gathered at the door." The entire human community is afflicted in various ways, and so it gradually forms a strange new community around Jesus. The healer from Nazareth is like a sun of health around which orbits a throng of humanity absorbing his healing rays. These blessed souls can't fix themselves and become healthy, and they know it. But they have found in him the living source of all imaginable healing.

It's the Church, isn't it? A sin-sick community gathered and healed is what happens at the beginning of every Mass. We shuffle in through the door from everywhere and announce that we are not okay, and we can't fix it. In doing so, we are drawn into the orbit of the healing power of Christ — and into a renewed community with the whole human family. It's nothing to fear or rush. Maybe we can even learn to enjoy more how good it is to be in such a happy place.

— Father John Muir

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

I am filled with restlessness until the dawn. (Jb 7:4)

Psalm:

Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted. (Ps 147)

Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:

If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast,
for an obligation has been imposed on me,
and woe to me if I do not preach it! (1 Cor 9:16)

Gospel:

He cured many who were sick with various diseases,
and he drove out many demons. (Mk 1:34)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus went from town to town, synagogue to synagogue, following the need. He follows it still, to this very day. Your life is the town he is visiting, your heart the synagogue where he preaches. Remember that for this purpose he has come.

Saint of the week

St. Hyacinth of Poland's devotion to the Christ in the Eucharist ignited a missionary fire that spread the Gospel across Central and Eastern Europe. He established Dominican communities all over Poland and is the patron saint of the pierogi!

Prayer for God's presence

Dear Jesus,
Reveal yourself to me! When I am alone and in darkness, fill me with your light. I want to know you, I want to experience your healing. Be with me, Lord.
Amen.

He told them, “Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come.” So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee. - Mk 1:38-39

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

Job was overwhelmed with feelings of sadness and despair. How does your faith help you get through difficult times?

Second Reading

Paul sees his “gospel” (the good news of Jesus Christ) as the center of his life. What do you think is the focus of your life?

Gospel Reading

At the start of Jesus’s public ministry in Galilee, we hear he was purpose-driven in performing many healings and exorcisms, as well as preaching the good news of the kingdom of God. What could you do this week as an intentional act of charity or kindness?

Purpose and Pride

Father, forgive me. Today's Gospel made me want to fight somebody.

If you want to make me really, really angry, you are sure of doing so if you tell me about an old woman who was sick, but felt a little better, and then her son-in-law and all his buddies showed up, so she cooked them a bunch of food and cleaned up after them.

We all project our own feelings, fears, insecurities, and desires onto the word of God. I certainly do. And most of my feelings, fears, insecurities, and desires spring from my current role as a tired mom of little kids.

I think there is a fear inside many of us of God's purpose for our lives. What if it's not aligned perfectly with what we think we need, or what we imagine we want? Most of the time, I think I need a nap, and I imagine that I want absolutely no one asking me for any kind of help. And here I am, perpetually napless and always being called on to render assistance.

The actions of Peter's mother-in-law were the only actions we would expect of a woman who had just received a miracle. She jumped up, and with bravery and boldness she served the Lord.

But couldn't she rest? Couldn't she serve him later? Couldn't she thank him with a smile and take a nap? Well, I suppose. But is that how you react to a miracle?

I have received my miracle — my family. My purpose. So why am I still lying down?

*"He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them."
— Mark 1:31*

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Is gossip a mortal sin?

Answer:

To really ask this question, we must consider the Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness."

In its reflections on this commandment, The Catechism of the Catholic Church invites us to not only think about what bearing "false witness" means, but to also consider how we understand the truth and how we communicate more broadly. This is why so much of this section of the Catechism has to do with the gift of language. With this in mind, we will notice that the word "gossip" isn't used by the Catechism. Instead, we find the words "detraction" and "calumny," which are actually two forms that gossip can take, and both can be quite serious.

First, detraction is the of revealing "another's faults and failings to persons who did not know them," without morally valid reasons. Calumny, by extension, is saying something about another person that is untrue, and it is sinful because it "harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgements" (see no. 2477).

In all of our communication, we have to always recognize that we have a moral obligation to the truth and to always work to protect the reputation and honor of our neighbors (see no. 2479).

Gossip can, in fact, prove to be a very serious sin. After all, the Catechism reminds us: "No one is bound to reveal the truth to someone who does not have the right to know it" (no. 2489). When we have gossiped, especially if we are aware we have damaged another person's good name or reputation, we want to make every effort to undo the damage we have done, including seeking the grace and forgiveness offered in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

PRAYERS IN THE PEW™

National Eucharistic Revival Supplement – February 2024

The Church in America is journeying with our bishops to the National Eucharistic Congress in July. We are on the Road to Emmaus with them, our hearts burning with love for the Eucharistic Lord!

THE PRIESTHOOD IS ESSENTIAL TO THE MYSTERY

Eucharistic Saint

St. Philip Neri (1515-1595) In a period of great upheaval, the Roman priest St. Philip Neri ministered to the people of his diocese, particularly the youth, whom he cared for diligently. St. Philip was so devoted to the Eucharist that he would fall into ecstasy during his celebration of the Mass, remaining in that state for long periods. He has been called the “pilgrim of Eucharistic joy”!

Back to Basics

MINISTERIAL PRIESTHOOD: The priest who stands at the altar expresses the very essence of his priesthood in a Eucharistic way, through sacrifice and intercession. These are the essential elements of the High Priesthood of Jesus Christ Himself:

1. The Book of Hebrews says that Jesus, “has a priesthood that does not pass away [so] he lives forever to make intercession for them” (Hebrews 7:25-26).
2. The Catechism reminds us that the sacrifice of Christ and the sacrifice of the Eucharist are one single sacrifice: “The victim is one and the same: [Christ] offers through the ministry of priests, who then offered himself on the cross; only the manner of offering is different.” (CCC, 1336)

In short: our priests pray and sacrifice for us, which is their way of imitating Christ the High Priest.

Calls to Action

Prayer for Vocations – Pope Paul VI said that religious vocations are “the fruit of communities united in prayer.” This means that families and parishes must “pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest” (Mt. 9:38).

Encouragement – Young men and women who feel attracted to religious life need much encouragement to embrace the call. Make sure to reach out to vocations prospects in your family and community to let them know how much they are appreciated and needed.

“If I were to meet a priest and an angel, I should salute the priest before I saluted the angel. The latter is the friend of God; but the priest holds His place.” ~ St. John Vianney

Faith Formation Companion to Prayers in the Pew™

→ MONTHLY SYNOPSIS ←

February 2024 – February is a month of contrasts. We barely finish the Christmas season when we are thrown into the penitential season of Lent. It is a good time to remember and help those around us who are suffering. It is also an important time to pray for the peace of mind and heart that can only come from the Spirit of Christ.

THE MORNING OFFERING

It has been a pious tradition throughout Church history for the faithful to make an offering of themselves and their activities to the Lord at the beginning of each day. Catholics consecrate every aspect of our lives (works, prayers, joys and sufferings) to Christ at the first waking moment of the day with the intention of living our Christian vocation to the fullest.

The great monastic religious orders developed a system of prayer throughout the day, which is called the Liturgy of the Hours, but the laity are not deprived of this beautiful prayer tradition either! A French Jesuit, Fr. Francois Xavier Gautrelet, composed a Morning Offering (also called the Daily Offering) in 1844, which has become well-known for its simplicity and beauty. He established a ministry called the Apostleship of Prayer, which even today propagates the Morning Offering.

BIBLE BASICS

The Bible contains an amazing amount of references to morning prayer: Abraham (Gen 19:27), Jacob (Gen 28:16), Moses (Gen 34:4), Joshua (Josh 6:15), the Prophet Samuel's parents (1 Sam 1:19), among others. The Psalms are also full of references to prayer in the early hours (Psalms 5, 57, 90, 119, 143).

Above all, Jesus Himself "rose early in the morning" to pray to His Father (Mt 28:1; Mk 51:35) giving us our best example of the Daily Offering of self to the mission of the Father.

As you pray this Offering, keep in mind that you are united with the entire Church at prayer, from the most pious nuns and monks in their monasteries to the simplest believers on all five continents:

THE MORNING OFFERING

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my works, prayers, joys and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart. I offer them in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of all my relatives and friends, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father. Amen.

Pope Benedict XVI reminded us that this practice of "offering up" the sacrifices of the day is a way of participating in Christ's ongoing redemption of the world. Allow this beautiful prayer—through daily recitation—to transform your faith practice into a continual offering of yourself to God from the first moment of every day.

THE SCHOOL OF SAINTS

Ponder the fact that God has made you a gardener of your soul, to root out vice and plant virtue. ~ St. Catherine of Siena

"All of us can attain to Christian virtue and holiness, no matter in what condition of life we live and no matter what our life work may be." ~ St Francis de Sales

SPIRITUAL CHALLENGE

During the Lenten Season let us challenge ourselves to make the Daily Offering a habit in our lives, if it is not already. We can challenge ourselves to memorize this short prayer too! By increasing our habit of offering our words, actions, prayers and sufferings to the Lord on a daily basis, we become His instruments and grow in holiness.

FAITH FUNDAMENTALS

The Cardinal Virtues

Cardinal in Latin means “hinge”. Simply put, all other human virtues hang on them like a door hangs on its hinges. The Cardinal Virtues help us manage the complexities of the world, and we acquire them by education and by deliberate practice (CCC, 1810).

Prudence is a virtue of the mind. It trains us think about the world, its qualities and its pitfalls. It helps us assess the possible consequences of our own actions and urges us to evaluate decisions ahead of time so that we can “do the right thing” in all circumstances.

Justice means that we “give to each person what is due to him.” It is the virtue that regulates our interactions with others. Justice assures that rights go together with responsibilities. The essence of Justice is the Golden Rule: “Do unto others as you would have them do unto you” (Matthew 7:12).

Fortitude helps us to persevere through difficult things in order to reap the rewards of long-term sacrifice. It can mean pushing ourselves to achieve something difficult or standing strong in the face of adversity. In a spiritual sense, it means resisting temptation and making efforts to overcome our own personal faults that are obstacles to God’s grace.

The final Cardinal Virtue—Temperance—regulates our appetites. It helps us develop some valuable human habits like self-control, boundary-setting, moderation and modesty.

CATECHISM CONNECTION

1804 Human virtues are firm attitudes, stable dispositions, habitual perfections of intellect and will that govern our actions, order our passions, and guide our conduct according to reason and faith. They make possible ease, self-mastery, and joy in leading a morally good life. The virtuous man is he who freely practices the good.
