This is to inform you that St. Anne Religious Education Program will present a program called the Circle of Grace to our students on February 11, 2026. This program is a part of our ongoing effort to help children and youth understand their own dignity and self-worth, to help create and maintain a safe environment for children and youth, and to give children, youth, and parents the tools to protect our most vulnerable ones from sexual abuse. The lessons are all age appropriate, and they are intended to supplement the parents' rightful role as first teachers of the faith.

These lessons are required for all dioceses in the United States, and we strongly encourage all parents to allow your child to participate. However, as a parent, you do have the right to opt your child out of these lessons. Regardless of what you decide, we encourage you to read the attached materials so you'll be aware of the nature of the Circle of Grace program. If you have questions about the program or the lesson, please contact Pam Richter at 870-423-3927. If you determine that you DO NOT want your child to participate, please visit the parish office to sign the "opt-out" form no later than February 10, 2026.

La presente es para informarles que Programa de educación religiosa de Santa Ana presentará un programa titulado Círculo de Gracia a nuestros estudiantes el 11 de febrero de 2026. Este programa es parte de nuestra continua labor para ayudar a los niños y jóvenes a comprender su propia dignidad y valor, ayudar a crear y mantener un ambiente seguro para los niños y jóvenes, y proporcionarles a los jóvenes, niños y padres de familia las herramientas para proteger a los más vulnerables del abuso sexual. Las lecciones son de acuerdo a su edad, y su objetivo es complementar la misión legítima que tienen los padres de familia como primeros maestros de la fe.

Se requieren estas lecciones en todas las diócesis en los Estados Unidos, y alentamos encarecidamente a los padres de familia a que permitan la participación de su hijo(a). Sin embargo, como padres de familia, ustedes tienen el derecho de excluir voluntariamente a su hijo(a) de estas lecciones. Independientemente de su decisión, los alentamos a que lean los materiales adjuntos para que estén al tanto de la naturaleza del programa Círculo de Gracia. Si tienen cualquier pregunta sobre el programa o la lección, por favor comuníquense con Pam Richter al 870-423-3927. Si deciden que NO desean que participe su hijo(a), visite la oficina parroquial para firmar el formulario de "exclusión voluntaria" a más tardar el 10 de febrero de 2026.

Para más información sobre el programa Círculo de Gracia, visite el sitio Web Círculo de Gracia En Línea™ en www.dolr.org

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Then your light shall break forth like the dawn,
and your wound shall quickly be healed. (Is 58:8)

Psalm:

The just man is a light in darkness to the upright. (Ps 112)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

When I came to you, brothers and sisters,
proclaiming the mystery of God,
I did not come with sublimity of words or of wisdom.
For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. (1 Cor 2:1-2)

Gospel:

"You are the light of the world.
A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.
Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel
basket." (Mt 5:14-15)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Salt without flavor is no longer salt. Light that illuminates nothing is no longer light. As Christians, we must be what we have been made to be. So think about it, carefully: what stands between you and being who you were made to be?

Observances for the week of February 8, 2026

- Sunday: 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time;
World Marriage Day
- Tuesday: St. Scholastica, Virgin
- Wednesday: Our Lady of Lourdes
- Saturday: Sts. Cyril, Monk, and Methodius, Bishop;
Valentine's Day
- Next Sunday: 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Virtues, Explained!

In baptism, the Holy Spirit gives us the sanctifying grace of justification — the ability to grow in goodness through an increase in moral virtue (CCC 1266). Baptism, therefore, disposes us toward goodness.

Blessing of Mission

Bless us on our way, O Lord.
Share with us as we share with others.
Heal us as we help others to heal.
Provide for us as we open our hands in charity.
Every gift comes from You.
You are at the heart of all that is good.
Share that goodness with us today, abundantly.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I recently learned why zebras have stripes. Scientists used to think it was for camouflage, but new research suggests something more interesting: the stripes help zebras blend in with one another. When a predator looks at a herd, the overlapping stripes make it hard to single out one animal. But if a researcher spray-paints a dot on just one zebra, predators lock on it and eventually attack. The lesson? In the wild, blending in is protection. Standing out can be dangerous.

Human beings are not so different. Most of us would rather blend in than stand out, especially when it comes to our faith. We know that giving bold witness to Jesus — through our words, values, or public choices — can make us targets for criticism, isolation, or judgment. That's why Jesus' words in today's Gospel are so challenging: "You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden" (Matthew 5:14).

A city on a hill draws attention. It also draws fire. But that's part of the cost of discipleship. Jesus doesn't call us to be tribal or boastful. He calls us to stand in the open with humble confidence, so that people might see our good deeds and glorify our Father in heaven. Today, let's ask for the courage not just to believe in Christ, but to be seen believing in him.

— Father John Muir

“Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.”

- Mt 5:15-16

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

We hear from Isaiah that the Lord expects us to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and avoid false accusations and hateful speech. Which of these virtues could you practice this week?

Second Reading:

Paul encourages the Corinthians to ground their faith in the power of God and not in human wisdom. How can you make this a regular habit?

Gospel:

Jesus challenges his disciples to have a positive influence in the world. Who do you know makes the world a better place?

Support our local advertisers

Please show your support for your parish by also supporting our advertisers. We wouldn't be able to bring you our bulletin every week without them. Please encourage and remind others to show their support and shop local.

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: The greatest saints in history were not great at holiness. The greatest saints in history were great at being who they were meant to be.

Be Salty

I want you to close your eyes. Are they closed? (I'm serious.) Okay. Now think of the greatest saint in history.

I don't care who you're thinking of. It's going to be different for everyone. Just think of that person. Think of his or her life. And answer the question: Why is he or she a great saint?

You're all thinking of different people, but the answer is the same for everyone. And it's not "Because he did great things for God" or "Because she sacrificed everything she had for the poor." Those answers show evidence of the reason. But the reason is something more.

The greatest saints in history were not great at holiness. God brought holiness about within them because (ding ding ding! Here's the answer!) the greatest saints in history were great at being who they were meant to be.

Not who they wanted to be. Not who they thought they should be. Who they were meant to be.

Simply put, they gave themselves to God. All of themselves. Flaws and all. And God took them, in their totality, and said: "Now watch this."

Just imagine if salt was ashamed of being salty. Imagine if it looked at the sodium content on its nutrition label and thought, "That's embarrassing," and decided it was going to stop being salt. Well, great. Now it's just a box of tiny rocks.

Wouldn't it have been better for the salt to trust the baker using it?

There is a plan for each of us. There is a path to holiness for each of us. This path doesn't bypass our flaws or our weaknesses; it incorporates them. It transforms them. It fulfills them.

So be salty. Be who you were meant to be.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Are near-death experiences real?

Answer:

There is a lot of curiosity and fascination with the idea of an afterlife and communicating with those who have died. In movies, television shows, and numerous books, people make claims about their ability to communicate with the dead, or having had a near-death experience. There is no objective way to verify any of this. While details about people and events can be surprisingly accurate, it is just circumstantial evidence that might be explained in other ways.

On the other hand, when people have unusual experiences, sometimes called near-death or out-of-body, it is real to them. They react with the emotions and thoughts that one would expect. At times, they report details they could not have known any other way, such as bits of conversation, or meeting people they had never known in this life. So certainly, to the person, they experience something. We believe in a life after death, we believe in the communion of saints. These things are not a contradiction to faith, but we should not base our faith on them, nor change our beliefs. They are unexplained and will likely remain so.

Beloved

Beloved uncovers the mystery and the meaning of the sacrament of marriage. What if marriage is more than you think it is? What if God has woven into the very fabric of your humanity a purposeful need and desire that can only be fulfilled in your marriage? Beloved invites all couples to experience firsthand the wonder, mystery, and joy behind that first "I do" ... whether you said it last year or many years ago.
