Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Many signs and wonders were done among the people at the hands of the apostles. (Acts 5:12)

Psalm:

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting. (Ps 118) Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:

When I caught sight of him, I fell down at his feet as though dead.

He touched me with his right hand and said, "Do not be afraid." (Rv 1:17)

Gospel:

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." (Jn 20:19)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Thomas needed proof to believe the amazing things that had happened. God, in His mercy, gave him that proof — but it was up to Thomas to accept it. Do we accept the proof we see of God's love every day?

Observances for the week of April 27, 2025

- Sunday: 2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy)
Monday: St. Peter Chanel, Priest and Martyr;
St. Louis Grignon de Montfort, Priest
Tuesday: St. Catherine of Siena,
Virgin and Doctor of the Church
Wednesday: St. Pius V, Pope
Thursday: St. Joseph the Worker, National Day of Prayer
Friday: St. Athanasius, Bishop and Doctor of the Church
Saturday: Sts. Philip and James, Apostles
Next Sunday: 3rd Sunday of Easter

Devotions, Explained!

The rite of sprinkling, also called the Asperges rite, recalls the new life we receive in the waters of our baptism. Though most common during the Easter season, this rite can take place on any Sunday and is used in place of the penitential act.

Prayer of Divine Mercy

O Blood and Water that redeems and saves, have mercy on us!
O Blood and Water that heals and restores, have mercy on us!
O Blood and Water that strengthens and renews, have mercy on us!
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

It's common for Catholics to hear the question, "Why do I have to go to a priest to have my sins forgiven?" I've never liked that question because not only is it clunky (confession is the ordinary way for the pardoning of serious sins, not lesser ones). But it misses the larger context: the wonderful origins of the sacrament itself. And this context is deeply Jewish.

Ancient Jews associated forgiveness of sins with priests offering sacrifices in the Jerusalem temple. It was a solemn, public, and tangible way to access God's mercy. So when the risen Jesus breathes on the Apostles and says, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained" (John 20:23), the upshot is remarkable: he is the new temple and his Apostles are the new priests. Jerusalem is no longer the place to find forgiveness from sin. Jesus' body, the Church, is.

So why should we go to the Sacrament of Confession? For the same reason ancient Jews went to the temple in Jerusalem: to experience the intimacy, joy, and life-giving power of God's eternal forgiveness.

— Father John Muir

Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" - Jn 20:27-28

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

In the aftermath of Jesus' resurrection, the Apostles performed "many signs and wonders," healing the sick and exorcising unclean spirits. Is there something in your life that needs healing?

Second Reading:

John is initially frightened at the strange vision of Jesus, but Jesus reassures him, "Do not be afraid." How does Jesus calm your fears?

Gospel:

The resurrected Jesus' first words to his disciples are "Peace be with you." How could you be a peacemaker this week with a family member or neighbor?

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: It does sound unbelievable, the story of the Resurrection. But lots of things are unbelievable. That doesn't mean they're not true. Take Thomas' example: stay close to the people you trust. Be willing to recognize Jesus when he's in front of you.

Wonder, Don't Wander

My daughter recently asked me if it's okay to "wonder if all the Jesus stuff is true."

I wasn't surprised by her question. I've expected it, in fact. If you're raising a child to be a critical thinker, you don't want them to accept everything you tell them simply because it comes from your lips. I have promised my children that I will always give them the truth about God. But that's all I can do — give it to them. Whether or not they accept it, ultimately, is their own choice.

"I know it's true," she told me. "But sometimes it just all sounds so...unbelievable."

She's not wrong. It does sound unbelievable that an all-powerful God could create us for no reason other than sheer love, that He could be generous enough to give us free will to accept that love, that he could be merciful enough not to destroy us when we reject that love, and finally that he could be faithful enough in that love to become flesh and die in order to save us from the consequences of our own poor choices.

But lots of things are unbelievable. That doesn't mean they're not true.

When Jesus says, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed," he isn't calling Thomas a fool for questioning something that sounds a little outrageous. He's just highlighting the fact that Thomas is afforded a luxury that none of the Christians born after him, my daughter included, will have: he gets to see proof with his own eyes.

I told my daughter it's fine to wonder — just don't wander. Take Thomas' example. Stay close to the people you trust. Return to the warmth of the upper room. Be willing to recognize Jesus when he's in front of you. Never be afraid to believe.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

If Jesus destroyed sin, why are sins still with us?

Answer:

We are the children of God, heirs of the Father's work, which is life. The struggle is between good and evil and the greatest weapon of evil is death. It is final — the end of hope and all possibility of change. Jesus must destroy death so that life, eternal life, might be possible. That is why Jesus dies: to take on sin's weapon and destroy it by his resurrection. It was not to satisfy God's sense of justice, but to meet sin on its own terms and defeat it.

Since we are heirs and coworkers with God, ours is the struggle with the remnants of evil, its last desperate attempt to overcome good. Like Jesus, we are about the Father's business in our daily life, carrying the message of salvation to everyone. We are strengthened in our struggle and come to realize the great gift of life with which we are graced. It is our hope that one day we will rejoice with the Father in a job well done!

Bishop Anthony B. Taylor issued the following statement, April 21, 2025, following the passing of Pope Francis.

"Francis calls us to pray for him and to reflect on our relationship with the Lord. As the spiritual leader for Catholics throughout the world, he led by word and example, always challenging himself along with us to be more Christ-like in the way we live our faith.

"He sought to be a messenger of hope and mercy for Catholics and others, calling all to a deeper relationship with the Lord through prayer and good works that reflected the compassion and love of Jesus. He was sincerely and deeply concerned about the poor and people living on the margins, and he was not afraid as their Shepherd to be their voice.

"As we join the world in mourning the Holy Father's passing, let us pray for eternal rest for his soul. Eternal rest grant unto your servant, Pope Francis, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon him. Amen."

Sincerely in Christ,
+Anthony B. Taylor

APRIL 2025 SUPPLEMENT

Saint of the Month

St. Catherine of Siena, Virgin (Feast-day, April 29) – It's hard to appreciate the impact of this one saint on the life of the Church. She was born as a twin in 1347, just one year before the Black Death. Her twin died as an infant and Catherine lived only to the age of 33. When her parents refused to let her become a nun, she joined a lay society similar to the Third Order Dominicans.

Catherine was a mystic who had extraordinary visions of Jesus from her childhood. She also received the Stigmata in 1375. Amazingly, she lived for her entire adult life on the Eucharist alone. What most distinguished Catherine's virtue, however, was her fervent devotion to the pope and to the unity of the Catholic Church. In 1376 she travelled to Avignon, France to beg the Pope Gregory XI, who was in residence there, to return to Rome and reform the clergy. So beloved was Catherine that she was named Patroness of Italy in 1939 and one of several Patron Saints of Europe in 1999.

Catechism Connection

THE ONE TRUE CHURCH – Why should Catholics think that our Church is the “one, true Church” when there are so many Christian churches out there?

Above all, the Lord explicitly established what He called His Church on the Rock of Peter (Mt 16:18-20) in order to carry on His mission after He left this world. The Greek word ἐκκλησία (ekklesia/church) is used 114 times in the New Testament, so it was a vital reality for Christians from the time of the Apostles until now. This church was called “catholic” from as early as the 2nd century.

The Lord also knew that His true Church would be challenged throughout the ages to prove authenticity, so He left us signs by which we could identify it.

This is the sole Church of Christ, which in the Creed we profess to be one, holy, catholic and apostolic. These four characteristics, inseparably linked with each other, indicate essential features of the Church and her mission. (Catechism, 811)

Back to Basics

FOUR MARKS OF THE CHURCH – The Catechism (nn. 823, 830, 837, 857) further explains these four “marks” (or characteristics) which help us accurately discern the identity of the Church that Christ founded:

His Church is ONE – which means that it is united under one leader and has a single saving doctrine;

His Church is HOLY – which means that it is not only a human institution but a divine one; it is united to the holiness of God, despite the sinfulness of its members;

His Church is CATHOLIC – which means it is “universal” in its teachings and in its embrace of all peoples and cultures; and

His Church is APOSTOLIC – which means it was founded on the 12 Apostles and has been sent by Christ to bring His salvation to the ends of the earth.

“If I were looking for the true Church in the world today, I would look for the one Church which did not get along well with the world... the Church which the world hated.”

~ Archbishop Fulton Sheen

Faith Formation Companion to Prayers in the Pew™

→ MONTHLY SYNOPSIS ←

April 2025 – We enter the month of April in the penitential garb of Lent, and we will exit April in the glory of Easter. Let us make sure to adore Christ with our reverent participation at Mass this month and to thank the Lord for the gifts of family and faith He has given us so generously.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

The Church has long believed that the Eucharist has an infinite capacity to touch our lives, not just during Mass, but at every moment of every single day. The Eucharist is like the life-giving oxygen we breathe—His grace sustains our lives without us even thinking about it. But it strengthens us even more when we deliberately turn our minds and hearts to Him in an Act of Spiritual Communion.

We should make an Act of Spiritual Communion regularly. It is a devotional prayer to Jesus, not the same as receiving Holy Communion in the Mass. Yet, a prayer such as this opens up a channel in our hearts and minds to receive graces that come from adoring Him in the Eucharist. Here is the beautiful prayer of St. Alphonsus Liguori:

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

*My Jesus,
I believe that You are truly present
in the Most Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things
and I desire to possess You within my soul.
Since I am unable now to receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as being already there,
and unite myself wholly to You.
Never, never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

We may use any words we wish to make an Act of Spiritual Communion, but there is none better than this prayer because it highlights the four elements needed for a true Spiritual Communion: Faith, Love, Desire, and Invitation.

The Eucharist requires our firm belief in His Real Presence. When we profess Faith in Him, we are like St. Thomas the Apostle, who cried out, "My Lord and my God" (Jn 20:28) in His Presence.

The prayer also professes an ardent Love for Him who has so generously given everything for us. Furthermore, we tell Him of our Desire to receive Him in the Eucharist, a desire which touches our very souls.

Finally, since we cannot receive Him sacramentally at that moment, we invite Him into our hearts so that our lives may be constantly imbued by His loving Presence at all times.

THE SCHOOL OF SAINTS

"Fasting is the soul of prayer, mercy is the lifeblood of fasting. So if you pray, fast; if you fast, show mercy; if you want your petition to be heard, hear the petition of others. If you do not close your ear to others, you open God's ear to yourself."
~ St. Peter Chrysologus

"Do you wish your prayer to fly toward God? Make for it two wings: fasting and almsgiving." ~ St. Augustine

SPIRITUAL CHALLENGE

During the Lenten Season let us challenge ourselves both to live the Church's Lenten discipline in its basic rules and to communicate those guidelines to those under our spiritual authority. We must live by example, but we must also teach others the truth of the Catholic Faith so that nothing of the Church's wisdom falls through the cracks.

CATECHISM CONNECTION

1438 – The seasons and days of penance in the course of the liturgical year (Lent, and each Friday in memory of the death of the Lord) are intense moments of the Church's penitential practice. These times are particularly appropriate for spiritual exercises, penitential liturgies, and pilgrimages as signs of penance, voluntary self-denial such as fasting and almsgiving, and fraternal sharing (charitable and missionary works).

BIBLE BASICS

Matthew 6:17-18 But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, so that it will not be obvious to others that you are fasting, but only to your Father, who is unseen; and your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Acts 14:23 Paul and Barnabas also appointed elders in every church. With prayer and fasting, they turned the elders over to the care of the Lord, in whom they had put their trust. The sick, their diseases left them and the evil spirits came out of them."

"THIS YEAR FOR LENT, LEROY JUST GAVE UP."

Featured Prayer for April

Prayer of St John Henry Cardinal Newman

O Lord support us all the day long of this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then, Lord, in thy mercy, grant us a safe lodging, a holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.

(This prayer is taken from the Prayers in the Pew Family Edition Prayer Card. Please refer to our website www.sitstandkneel.com for the online version of this newsletter and all our prayer cards.)

FAITH FUNDAMENTALS

Guidelines for Fasting and Abstinence During Lent

On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday every year, Catholics are obliged to fast from food and abstain from meat. The US Catholic Bishops' Guidelines for Lent tell us: "For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59.

When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards."

These practices are a way of keeping the memory of the death of the Lord Jesus on Good Friday alive in our spiritual life.
