Sixth Sunday of Easter

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There is a geography to the liturgy of baptism that distills the journey of faith. Each part of the liturgy is assigned to a distinct part of the church building. Baptism, whether of infants carried to church by their parents or of adults following the paschal candle into a darkened church at Easter, starts at the door. First, a threshold must be crossed and a new community of meaning and memory encountered for the first time. Then, the celebration moves to the place for God's Word. Next, as the litany of the saints is sung, there is a procession to the font. Finally, the movement is to the table, the altar of the Eucharist. There, newly baptized adults are brought to the sacred meal, or the parents of infants are blessed and reminded that their child will one day share fully in the table's banquet.

Many Catholic churches honor this geography by placing the font near the door, or at least small vessels with water. The doorway of our church is a place of memory, and a passageway to a new way of living.

The Catholic Diocese of Little Rock is committed to protecting children and young people. If you are aware of abuse or have been abused by clerics, Church volunteers, or Church workers, please contact the State of Arkansas Hotline for Crimes against Children at 1-800-482-5964 and the Chancellor for Canonical Affairs, Dcn. ## THE ADVOCATE

As Jesus prepared the apostles for the time when he would no longer be with them physically, and knowing that they would face hardship, trials and persecution in the future, he promised them an Advocate, the Holy Spirit. Through baptism that same Spirit dwells within us, always with us to guide us in the truth of God's love and strengthen us so that we may know Christ and live as Christ's people. Now, as in every time, God knows it is not always easy to live as a Christian. With the assurance of the Holy Spirit's presence, we find the grace to love Jesus and to keep the Lord's commandments.

LIGHT OF BELIEF

Every believer in this world must become a spark of light.

-Pope Saint John XXIII

OUR FASCINATING FAITH - Saint Isidore the Farmer (May 15)

On May 15 of each year, the farmers in Ichocan, Peru, adorn their mules and their homes with the fruits of their harvest in honor of Saint Isidore the Farmer. The image of the saint is taken in a procession through the town to bless the work of the farmers. Many Latin American countries celebrate this feast in a similar manner. On a continent where agriculture represents the principal occupation, the importance of this Spanish saint of the twelfth century is not surprising. Saint Isidore has a background similar to that of many people in Latin America and many Latinos in the United States. Born in 1070, he was the son of working parents in Madrid, a poor and religious family. He did not go to school and became an orphan at ten years of age. He worked as a country laborer for a rich family and did agricultural work all his life.

He married a woman named Maria, who also became a saint. Together with their son, the three formed a holy family and were recognized as pious and generous persons. Years after Isidore's death in 1130, his body was discovered to be miraculously incorrupt. In 1622 Pope Gregory XV canonized this humble farmer together with such great religious figures as Teresa of Avila, Ignatius Loyola and Francis Xavier. Thank God that sainthood is not found only among the priests and religious. Married couples and fathers and mothers can also become saints.

The Search Prayer

Lord, there are a great many people who are searching for You and trying to find a place for You in their lives.

Others are trying to renew their faith in You, to rediscover Your love and grace and keep it forever. I am part of these many people who need You.

Please be with me throughout my search and renewal of faith in You. Your love is unconditional and will help the road ahead seem easier.

Help me to put my trust in You, to rely on You in times of need and to share with you my times of joy.

Help me to know that You will always be there for me, for this Search, the fourth day, and all of the other personal searches I will have.

Thank you for making me the unique person I am, and thank You for loving me as "ME". Help me to always know this and help me to always love You.

Through You Son,
Jesus Christ ---
Amen

B. S.

The Search Team is composed of teenagers and adult leaders who have made their Search. They commit to acceptance of God's call to be of service to others. Their behavior reflects what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ.

SEARCH is a time to get to know Christ
SEARCH is planned, prepared and presented by a team of high school juniors and seniors.

SEARCH welcomes high school juniors and Seniors

SEARCH is a weekend for fun, friends and personal growth.

SEARCH may not be the answer, but it just might help you ask some of the right questions. Who am I? Where do I belong? What am I going to do with my life? Where is God in my life?

SEARCH is not a party, but you'll never have more fun discovering something new about the person you were created to be... a good person who can make a difference by becoming more Christ-like.

SEARCH is an opportunity you can't afford to miss. It's a time to be understood, accepted by all without judgment, and a time to make positive life choices.

Peer ministry is an important element of Search. Young people find out by listening to others their own age, that they are normal and that their experiences are pretty typical.

They recognize that the joys and hurts, fears and successes, that come along at this stage of their life are not unusual.

Searchers experience friendship in community. They find others who are willing to share their faith and life stories.

A Marian Glossary

“She is that woman who rejoiced in the presence of God, who treasured everything in her heart, and who let herself be pierced by the sword. Mary is the saint among the saints, blessed above all others. She teaches us the way of holiness and she walks ever at our side. She does not let us remain fallen and at times she takes us into her arms without judging us.” —Pope Francis, Gaudete et Exsultate, no. 176

Below is a brief outline of important terms about or related to the Blessed Mother.

ANNUNCIATION: The visit of the angel Gabriel to the virgin Mary to inform her that she was to be the mother of the Savior. After giving her consent to God’s word, Mary became the mother of Jesus by the power of the Holy Spirit.

ASSUMPTION: The dogma which recognizes the Blessed Virgin Mary’s singular participation in her Son’s Resurrection by which she was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, when the course of her earthly life was finished.

HAIL MARY: The prayer known in Latin as the Ave Maria. The first part of the prayer praises God for the gifts he gave to Mary as Mother of the Redeemer; the second part seeks her maternal intercession for the members of the Body of Christ, the Church, of which she is the Mother.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION: The dogma proclaimed in Christian Tradition and defined in 1854, that from the first moment of her conception, Mary—by the singular grace of God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ—was preserved immune from original sin.

MAGNIFICAT: The title commonly given to the Latin text and vernacular translation of the Canticle (or Song) of Mary that she recites at the time of the visitation. The canticle begins with “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord.”

MARY: The mother of Jesus. Because she is the mother of Jesus—Son of God and second Person of the Blessed Trinity—according to the flesh, she is rightly called the Mother of God (Theotokos). Mary is also called “full of grace,” and “Mother of the Church,” and in Christian prayer and devotion, “Our Lady,” the “Blessed Virgin Mary,” and the “New Eve.”

PRESENTATION: The presentation and dedication of Jesus to God by Mary and Joseph in the Temple (Lk 2:22-39), in accord with Mosaic Law concerning the first-born. At the Presentation, Simeon and Anna sum up the expectation of Israel for the long-awaited Messiah, the light of the nations and the glory of Israel, but also as a sign of contradiction. The presentation of the gifts, especially of bread and wine, is a preparatory rite for the liturgy of the Eucharist at Mass.

ROSARY: A prayer in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which repeats the privileged Marian prayer Ave Maria, or Hail Mary, in “decades” of ten prayers, each preceded by the Pater Noster

(“Our Father”) and concluded by the Gloria Patri (Glory Be to the Father), accompanied by meditation on the mysteries of Christ’s life. The rosary was developed by medieval piety in the Latin church as a popular substitute for the liturgical prayer of the Hours.

VIRGIN BIRTH: The conception of Jesus in the womb of the Virgin Mary solely by the power of the Holy Spirit. The Church’s confession of faith in the virgin birth affirms that Jesus was conceived by the Holy Spirit without human seed.

VIRGIN MARY: The mother of Jesus, who is honored as “ever-virgin” for her perpetual virginity.

VISITATION: At the annunciation, the angel Gabriel told Mary that she would be the mother of the savior. Gabriel also told Mary that her barren cousin, Elizabeth, had conceived a son in her old age. Mary went to visit her cousin and confirmed the truth of the angel’s words. The time she spent with Elizabeth is referred to as “the visitation.”

We are not made to live like atoms,
but together:

—Pope Francis, World
Communications Day, 2022

Merchant mariners, fishermen, port workers, and others working in the maritime industries have special pastoral needs to remain connected with their faith. For over a century, Apostleship of the Sea (AOS) has served merchant sailors around the world by providing sacraments and spiritual renewal through port chaplaincies, as well as hospitality, recreational opportunities, and communication with loved ones at home.

In 2013, Apostleship of the Sea of the United States of America developed Stella Maris, the only smartphone app for Catholic merchant sailors. As technology and code systems advanced, the original app became obsolete. In 2022, AOS-USA, using a grant from the Catholic Communication Campaign, rebuilt the app to work on iOS and Android phones. The updated app keeps Catholic seafarers close to their faith by including a directory of AOS chaplains across the United States and around the world, daily prayers and reflections, a feature that allows sailors to submit their own prayer requests, news, and a cruise ship feature that lets cruise passengers know which ships have Catholic priests on board.

Your support of the Catholic Communication Campaign helps AOS-USA engage and build community among Catholic seafarers and their families.

No estamos hechos para vivir como átomos, sino juntos.

—Papa Francisco, Jornada Mundial de las Comunicaciones Sociales, 2022

Los marinos mercantes, los pescadores y demás personas que trabajan en las industrias marítimas tienen necesidades pastorales especiales para poder mantenerse conectados a su fe. Por más de un siglo, el Apostolado del Mar (AOS, en inglés), ha servido a los marineros mercantes en todo el mundo proporcionándoles sacramentos y renovación espiritual por medio de las capellanías, así como también mediante la hospitalidad, las oportunidades recreativas y la comunicación con sus seres queridos en casa.

En el 2013, el Apostolado del Mar-USA creó Stella Maris, la única aplicación para teléfonos inteligentes para marineros mercantes católicos. A medida que la tecnología y los sistemas de código avanzaban, la aplicación original se volvió obsoleta. En el 2022, el AOS-USA, utilizando una subvención de la Campaña Católica de la Comunicación, rehízo la aplicación para que funcionara con los teléfonos iOS y los Androides. Esta aplicación actualizada mantiene a los marineros más cercanos a su fe pues incluye un directorio de capellanes del Apostolado del Mar alrededor de Estados Unidos y del mundo, así como las oraciones y las reflexiones diarias, función que les permite a los marineros presentar sus peticiones de oración y noticias y es también una función en los cruceros, que les permite a los pasajeros saber cuáles buques llevan sacerdotes católicos a bordo.

El apoyo de ustedes a la Campaña Católica de la Comunicación ayuda al AOS-USA a involucrar a los marineros católicos y sus familias y construir comunidad.
