Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Once a man came to the Vatican and asked to see Pope John Paul II, claiming that they had been friends in Poland. When told of the man, the Pope said, “He is mistaken about our friendship. I don’t recall ever having suffered with him.” As it turned out, the man had never known the Pope. Now, I’m not sure if the story is totally factual. But doesn’t the juxtaposition of suffering with friendship sound exactly like JPII? He understood that the deepest and most lasting friendships are forged in the fires of shared suffering. No suffering, no friendship. Amazing.

This week we hear Jesus say to the apostles and to us, “You are my friends if you do what I command you” (John 15:14). In Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection, God entered the world of human suffering and transformed it into an avenue of friendship with Himself. Following His command — to love, to lay down our lives for others — will always entail suffering. But this suffering only deepens our friendship with Him. His suffering is ours; ours is His. We have become friends of God.

This week, how might you share your suffering with the Risen Jesus? How might he be sharing his suffering with you, in the lives of those around you? Be attentive to that, and you’ll find that you are indeed a friend of God, because you’ve suffered together a great deal.

— Father John Muir

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. (Acts 10:45-46)

Psalm:

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power. (Ps 98)
Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:

Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. (1 Jn 4:8)

Gospel:

"No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." (Jn 15:13)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Christ's love for us is radical — it changed the whole world. It will not be easy to love as Christ loved, but this is the mission for which we have been chosen by God. So let us love one another. Let us change the world.

Observances for the week of May 05, 2024

- Sunday: 6th Sunday of Easter
- Thursday: The Ascension of the Lord (holy day of obligation in some U.S. dioceses)
- Friday: St. John of Avila, Priest and Doctor of the Church; St. Damien de Veuster, Priest
- Next Sunday: The Ascension of the Lord; 7th Sunday of Easter; World Communications Day; Mother's Day

Saint of the week

St. Cyril of Jerusalem was a bishop in the fourth century. His teachings on the Eucharist, among other topics, secured his place as a Doctor of the Church. Though his ministry was marked by estrangement, exile, and ultimately, reconciliation, he never lost his faith!

Prayer of Love

God the Father,
You created me in love.
Jesus, your love for me compelled you to come to earth to die for me.
Holy Spirit, love between God and Jesus, now you surround me with the love of the Father and the Son.
Help me to live out this reality, today and always.
Amen.

“It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another.”

- Jn 15:16-17

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

The Jewish believers who accompanied Peter to the house of Cornelius were “astonished” that Gentiles who had faith in Jesus also received the gift of the Holy Spirit. Have you ever been surprised by what God has done in your life?

Second Reading:

John teaches us that the essence of God is love and we are called to love one another. Who might you work on loving this week?

Gospel:

Jesus taught his disciples that loving him and loving each other brings “complete joy.” What brings you joy in your life?

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

As I Love You

This week my children were learning about energy. We set up an experiment with toy cars — one was placed in front of another, and a third was pushed into the two stationary ones.

The forward motion caused the front car to move, but not much. “Most of the energy goes into the car in the middle, not the car on the end,” my daughter concluded.

I asked her why she seems to have so much energy, and I seem to have so little.

“Because you’re old,” she replied confidently.

Most days I feel like that first car, barreling at life with all my energy and love and good intentions, only to have it almost entirely absorbed by the proverbial middle car. It’s so easy to be discouraged. The devil so badly wants us to feel discouraged.

But the law of love is not unlike the law of conservation of energy. Love is neither created nor destroyed. It is only transferred from one form to another. And yes, sometimes it certainly seems like it disappears. It appears to get lost between my hands and the plate of dinner that goes uneaten or evaporates off of my lips as words I fear are never heard. It is spat upon as a commandment the world would prefer I do not keep.

But we are not called to simply love one another — to love when it seems effective and productive and appreciated. We are called to love as Christ loved: recklessly, selflessly, and yes, even without logic. We are called to love with a love that doesn’t give up and is never withdrawn. A love that doesn’t fear death or the world’s hatred. A love that stands willing to argue, to be reviled, to be dismissed.

We are called to be that first car, hurtling ourselves against a world that isn’t ready to accept or understand us. And we trust that, even when we can’t see how, the love that seems to disappear simply changes forms.

*“This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.”
— John 15:12*

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

My neighbor is just beginning to explore the Catholic faith but was raised agnostic. I grew up believing in God, praying, and attending Mass. How does one start from scratch as an adult to develop a relationship with God?

Answer:

Start on a personal level! How did you and your neighbor become friends? How did you begin to discuss such a personal topic as faith? Communication, spending time together, and getting to know each other are essential to forming the bonds of a relationship. Personal prayer is essential to our relationship with God. We can’t be close to someone we don’t know! Invite your friend to explore the stories of Jesus in the Bible. Introduce them to the lives of the saints, especially ones you think they might be interested in.

Your neighbor might also have questions about the Catholic faith that you don’t know how to answer. If your friend hasn’t yet enrolled in RCIA classes, invite them to Mass at your parish. Introduce your friend to the faith formation director to make a connection. Personal support can be helpful as well, especially if few of your neighbor’s current friends are practicing their faith. Connect your neighbor to other people in your parish living their faith well. The good examples of other faithful people could help your neighbor to feel welcomed and supported. Our Church is vibrant and alive!

PRAYERS IN THE PEW™

National Eucharistic Revival Supplement – May 2024

As we draw closer to the National Eucharistic Congress in July, we are reminded that we must hand on our Eucharistic faith as the disciples did after they experienced Jesus on the Road to Emmaus.

TEACHING THE EUCHARIST TO CHILDREN

Eucharistic Saint

Pope St. Pius X (1835-1914) This saint-pope often gathered children around him in papal audiences and conversed with them. He loved the innocence of children as the Lord had loved them. In 1910, he published a decree allowing children to receive the Eucharist as early as seven years of age. Previously, only those who were confirmed were allowed to receive Holy Communion. He is known as “the Pope of the Eucharist”.

Back to Basics

THE DOMESTIC CHURCH: Our Church has always placed the primary responsibility for handing on the Catholic faith in the family, not in systems of formal education, as important as these are. Our Catechism states clearly that the family is its own type of church:

The Christian home is the place where children receive the first proclamation of the faith. For this reason the family home is rightly called “the domestic church,” a community of grace and prayer, a school of human virtues and of Christian charity (CCC, 1666).

In preparing children for their First Holy Communion, parents impart the first Eucharistic catechesis, teaching their children the essential virtues of reverence, purity of heart, humility, and the necessary connection between the Sacraments of Penance and the Eucharist.

Faith in Action

Wonderful Symbolism – Dressing as little brides and grooms for First Holy Communion offers a unique opportunity to teach children that Christ is a husband whose Bride is the Church. This symbolism communicates to children that Christ loves His Church with the deepest possible love.

Relationship – As children grow, they need ongoing instruction in the Church's Eucharistic faith, which means they need to develop a relationship with the Bread of Life Himself. They do this primarily by their family's fidelity to Sunday Mass as well as through the numerous influences of catechesis, Eucharistic adoration, retreats, devotions, and preaching.

*“The Eucharist is the supreme proof of the love of Jesus. After this, there is nothing more but Heaven itself.”
~ St. Peter Julian Eymard*

PRAYERS IN THE PEW™ MONTHLY

FAITH IN ACTION CALENDAR / HIGHLIGHTS

FRIDAY MAY 10	St. Damien de Veuster, Priest
MONDAY MAY 13	Our Lady of Fatima
SUNDAY MAY 19	PENTECOST SUNDAY

Faith Formation Companion to Prayers in the Pew™

→ MONTHLY SYNOPSIS ←

May 2024 – May begins with St. Joseph the Worker (May 1) and ends with the Visitation of Our Lady to St. Elizabeth (May 31). It is a month full of blessings which will bring us through the great post-Easter feasts (Pentecost/Trinity) as well as the feasts of numerous wonderful saints. Let us open our hearts to receive so many blessings!

THE ANGELUS

A beloved but lesser-known Marian prayer of our Catholic faith is the “Angelus”, a Latin word which means “angel”. The prayer is in the form of three verses and responses which repeat the dialogue of the Archangel Gabriel with the Blessed Virgin Mary at the Annunciation (Luke 1:26-38), each of which is followed by the recitation of the Hail Mary.

The custom of praying the Angelus three times during the day (at 6 am, noon, and 6 pm) included the ringing of the Angelus bell which called people to take time out of their busy workdays to pray. This custom has its roots in the great monastic traditions of the Benedictines and the piety of the Franciscans dating back at least to the 11th century in its current form. The prayer especially reminds us of the Incarnation of our Lord and the roles of the angels and Our Lady in the work of salvation.

THE ANGELUS

- V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary,
R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.
(Hail Mary...)
- V. Behold the handmaid of the LORD.
R. Be it done unto me according to thy word.
(Hail Mary...)
- V. And the Word was made flesh.
R. And dwelt among us. (Hail Mary...)
- V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.
R. That we might be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

The Angelus is meant to be prayed in groups of two or more with a leader reciting the verse and the others offering the response, however it may be prayed individually with great spiritual benefit to the one who prays.

Let us pray: Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we to whom the Incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection. Through the same Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

BIBLE BASICS

Judith 14:7 Blessed are you in every tent of Judah! In every nation, all who hear your name will be struck with holy fear.

Luke 1:38 “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word.” Then the angel departed from her.

THE SCHOOL OF SAINTS

“A servant of Mary will have a tender devotion to St. Joseph, and by his pious homage of respect and love, will endeavor to merit the protection of this great saint.”

~ St. Madeleine Sophie Barat

“It is not hard to obey when we love the one whom we obey.” ~ St. Ignatius Loyola

SPIRITUAL CHALLENGE

In this Month of Mary, let us challenge ourselves to spread devotion to Our Lady in whatever way we can. Let us also pray for our brothers and sisters who are suffering for their faith around the world. Our Lady has a special love for all those who follow her Son, and we must have that same concern for persecuted and threatened Christians everywhere.

Praying with the National Eucharistic Revival

Prayer After Receiving Holy Communion

My Jesus, I love and adore You. You have come to me; I am one with You. I want You to remain with me forever, in this life and in the next. Thank You for allowing me to share Your Divine Life. May I become more like You through this Sacred Food. Let me never take You for granted, but always pray for those whose lives are dark with sin and ignorance and selfishness. Let me remember, in the words of Saint Paul, that "there, but for the grace of God, go I." Each day, I can become more like You, O Lord. And each day I can pray for those who have never heard the Gospel, or who have heard it and rejected it. Amen.

FAITH FUNDAMENTALS

The Ten Commandments

The Ten Commandments are displayed in courthouses, churches, or other public places as two stone tablets with three Roman numerals on the left and seven on the right. The first tablet stands for the three commandments that apply to God. The second tablet represents the seven that apply to our neighbor.

The Catechism calls the Ten Commandments our "fundamental duties" (CCC, 2072) toward God and man. They indicate where God makes some basic demands on all His children, but His demands are hardly burdensome. In eight out of ten cases, the commandments simply tell us what to avoid for our own good and the good of our neighbor!

Here is a refresher course on God's Law:

- 1 "I am the Lord thy God, thou shalt not have any strange gods before Me."
- 2 "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain."
- 3 "Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day."
- 4 "Honor thy father and mother."
- 5 "Thou shalt not kill."
- 6 "Thou shalt not commit adultery."
- 7 "Thou shalt not steal."
- 8 "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor."
- 9 "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife."
- 10 "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods."

DECLINE TO SIGN

ARKANSAS ABORTION
AMENDMENT PETITION

BISHOP ANTHONY B. TAYLOR

"It is critical that all registered voters decline to sign the petition to allow the Arkansas Abortion Amendment on the November 2024 ballot."

Through July 5, canvassers are collecting signatures for the proposed Arkansas Abortion Amendment, which would allow unrestricted abortion "within 18 weeks of fertilization." Please decline to sign.

Catholics have duties and responsibilities as citizens, and we are called to actively participate in political life to further the common good. This means bringing our faith into the public square. (See Gaudium et spes 75) The intrinsically evil act of abortion must always be vigorously opposed. For this reason, Bishop Taylor is urging all Catholics not to sign the petition to put the Arkansas Abortion Amendment on our voting ballots.

Please Decline to Sign.

February 12, 2024

To the People of the Diocese of Little Rock,

A petition is currently being circulated in Arkansas to place an amendment on our November 2024 voting ballots that would change our state constitution to allow abortions until 18 weeks after conception. As Bishop of the Diocese of Little Rock, I urge all Catholics and all people of good will not to sign this petition.

During this campaign to enshrine abortion in our constitution, we expect that our media will be flooded with emotional propaganda. We should all know the truth about abortion and women's healthcare.¹ Abortion, the direct and intentional killing of a child in the womb, is never morally permissible. Abortion is never medically necessary. It does not treat or solve any pregnancy-related complication. It is not the same as treatment for miscarriage, because in miscarriage the baby has already died. Banning abortion does not prevent women from receiving true healthcare that they need. In rare cases, and in the absence of better alternatives, life-threatening maternal health conditions may require interventions that indirectly and unintentionally lead to the death of an unborn child— but this is not abortion.

This radical amendment would also strip our government from protecting women and their unborn children by gutting the state's regulatory laws like requiring parental consent before a minor has an abortion, informed consent and ultrasound requirements, or abortion facility inspection. Arkansas would be unable to protect unborn children who can already feel pain from dismemberment abortion.

The citizens of Arkansas share in the responsibility to legally protect every human life from conception to natural death. It is critical that all registered voters decline to sign the petition to allow the Arkansas Abortion Amendment on the November 2024 ballot. Rather than abortion, women should be provided love, compassion, and support through pregnancy and into each child's early years. Together we can protect the lives of thousands of innocent babies.

Sincerely in Christ,

+Anthony B. Taylor
Bishop of Little Rock

12 de febrero, 2024

Al Pueblo de la Diócesis de Little Rock:

Se está circulando una petición en Arkansas para incluir una enmienda en nuestras boletas de votación de noviembre de 2024 que cambiaría nuestra constitución estatal para permitir abortos inducidos hasta 18 semanas después de la concepción. Como Obispo de la Diócesis de Little Rock, insto a todos los católicos y a todas las personas de buena voluntad a no firmar esta petición.

Durante esta campaña para consagrar el aborto inducido en nuestra constitución, esperamos que nuestros medios se vean inundados de propaganda emocional. Todos deberíamos saber la verdad sobre el aborto inducido y la atención médica de la mujer.¹ El aborto inducido, la muerte directa e intencional de un niño en el útero, nunca es moralmente permisible. El aborto inducido nunca es médicamente necesario. No trata ni soluciona ninguna complicación relacionada con el embarazo. No es lo mismo que el tratamiento del aborto espontáneo, porque en el aborto espontáneo el bebé ya ha muerto. Prohibir el aborto inducido no impide que las mujeres reciban la verdadera atención médica que necesitan. En casos raros, y en ausencia de mejores alternativas, las condiciones de salud materna que ponen en peligro la vida pueden requerir intervenciones que indirecta e involuntariamente causen la muerte del feto, pero esto no es un aborto inducido.

Esta enmienda radical también despojaría a nuestro gobierno de la capacidad de proteger a las mujeres y a sus hijos no nacidos al eliminar las leyes regulatorias del estado, como exigir el consentimiento de los padres antes de que una menor tenga un aborto, el consentimiento informado y los requisitos de ultrasonido, o la inspección de las instalaciones de aborto. Arkansas no podría proteger a los niños no nacidos que ya pueden sentir dolor por el aborto por desmembramiento.

Los ciudadanos de Arkansas comparten la responsabilidad de proteger legalmente cada vida humana desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural. Es crucial que todos los votantes registrados se nieguen a firmar la petición para permitir la Enmienda sobre el Aborto de Arkansas ("Arkansas Abortion Amendment") en la boleta electoral de noviembre de 2024. En lugar de un aborto inducido, las mujeres deberían recibir amor, compasión y apoyo durante el embarazo y los primeros años de cada niño. Juntos podemos proteger las vidas de miles de bebés inocentes.

Sinceramente en Cristo,

+Anthony B. Taylor

The Truth About Abortion & Women's Health

Abortion does not save women's lives.

Abortion is the direct and intentional killing of a child in the womb.

Abortion is never medically necessary. It does not treat or solve any pregnancy-related complication.

Outlawing abortion will not affect treatment for miscarriage.

Treatment for miscarriage and abortion is not the same thing.

There is a complete moral and legal difference between losing a child through miscarriage and intentionally taking the life of a child.

In the tragic case of miscarriage, surgery may be necessary—and is an ethical treatment—to remove the remains of an unborn child who has already died.

While the same surgery is done to perform an abortion, abortions impose this procedure on a living child with the intention of ending his or her life.

Women can get the lifesaving treatments they need—without abortion.

In rare cases, and in the absence of better alternatives, life-threatening maternal health conditions may require interventions that indirectly and unintentionally lead to the death of an unborn child. Abortion restrictions will not prevent women from receiving these treatments.

When the lives of mother and child are in immediate danger, the goal is to fight to save both patients.

Effective treatments exist that seek to save the life of the mother and never to intentionally harm her unborn child.

When a woman's life is at risk in pregnancy, preterm delivery may be used as a lifesaving medical intervention to preserve the life of both mother and child.¹

Ectopic pregnancies result when an embryo implants outside the uterus—often in the fallopian tube. Sadly, such embryos cannot survive and this condition can pose serious risks to the mother. While ectopic pregnancies sometimes resolve naturally, interventions are often necessary.

When done ethically, treatment for an ectopic pregnancy is not abortion. Ethical interventions include the removal of the damaged fallopian tube containing the embryo or, if embryo death has already occurred, medication can be used to resolve the ectopic pregnancy.

Bottom line: Abortion restrictions never prevent women from receiving life-saving treatment.²

La verdad sobre el aborto y la salud de la mujer

El aborto no salva la vida a las mujeres.

El aborto es el asesinato directo e intencional de un niño en el seno materno.

El aborto nunca es una necesidad médica. No trata ni soluciona ninguna complicación relacionada con el embarazo.

Prohibir un aborto no afectará el tratamiento para un aborto espontáneo.

El tratamiento para un aborto espontáneo y un aborto no es lo mismo.

Hay una total diferencia moral y jurídica entre perder un hijo por un aborto espontáneo y quitar la vida a un hijo de manera intencional.

En el caso trágico de un aborto espontáneo, puede ser necesaria una cirugía, y esta constituye un tratamiento ético— para quitar los restos de un niño no nacido que ya murió.

Aunque la misma cirugía se hace en un aborto, los abortos imponen este procedimiento en un hijo vivo con la intención de terminar su vida.

Las mujeres pueden conseguir tratamientos necesarios para salvarles la vida sin recurrir a un aborto.

En raros casos, y si no hay mejores alternativas, si hay afecciones de salud maternal que pongan en riesgo la vida se pueden requerir intervenciones que indirectamente y sin intención tengan como resultado la muerte de un niño en el seno materno. Las restricciones en los abortos no impedirán que las mujeres reciban estos tratamientos.

Cuando la vida de la madre y del hijo están en peligro inminente, el objetivo es bregar para salvar a ambos pacientes. Existen tratamientos efectivos que buscan salvar la vida de la madre y nunca dañar intencionalmente a su hijo en el vientre.

Cuando la vida de una mujer está en riesgo durante el embarazo, se puede realizar un parto prematuro como una intervención médica para salvar la vida con la intención de preservar la vida de la madre y del hijo.¹

Los embarazos ectópicos ocurren cuando un embrión se implanta fuera del útero, por lo general en las trompas de Falopio. Lamentablemente los embriones no pueden sobrevivir y esta afección puede implicar graves riesgos para la madre. Aunque los embarazos ectópicos a veces se resuelven de manera natural, las intervenciones por lo general son necesarias.

Cuando se hace de manera ética, el tratamiento para un embarazo ectópico no constituye un aborto. Las intervenciones éticas implican quitar la trompa de Falopio dañada que contiene el embrión o, si el embrión ya murió, se puede usar medicación para solucionar el embarazo ectópico.

Conclusión: Las restricciones al aborto nunca impiden que las mujeres reciban el tratamiento que les salve la vida.²
