TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

If there is such a thing as a Catholic “trademark” it is the sign of the cross, first traced on the senses of catechumens as they begin the journey to baptism, or on the forehead of an infant who is brought to the doors of the church at baptism.

As early as the third century, Christians were tracing the sign of the cross on their bodies. At first, the cross was traced on the forehead during times of prayer and daily occupations. We use a similar small cross today as we trace the cross over on the forehead, lips, and heart at the Gospel during Mass. Much later, the full-body sign traced from forehead to heart to shoulders took shape, perhaps copying the priest’s gesture of blessing with the consecrated host during Mass. Today, this superb baptismal gift is a sign of belonging to Christ and the community, a way of focusing our attention, of asking for God’s blessing, of tracing on our shoulders a willingness to find meaning in life’s burdens. In the sign of the cross, we have an ever-available means of expressing gratitude for our baptism.

May Crowning

The May Crowning will be on Sunday, May 14th. If you would like your child to participate, please have them in the vestibule of the church before Mass begins. They are welcome to bring a flower or we will provide them with one.

FOLLOWING JESUS' WAY OF LOVE

Throughout the Easter season, we hear the story of the earliest Christian communities in readings from the Acts of the Apostles. We hear how the people grappled with what it meant to place their faith and trust in the Lord, understanding that doing so called them to live differently—to follow Jesus' way of love. This is more than a history lesson for us. As we hear how the people were drawn to Christ and learned to follow Jesus, we are invited to ask ourselves how fully we are taking the gospel to heart. Is Jesus our way, truth, and life? Do our daily actions announce the praises of the Lord?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — To meet their growing needs, the community chooses seven reputable men to serve the new Greek believers (Acts 6:1-7).

Psalm — We rely on you, O God; show us mercy (Psalm 33).

Second Reading — We, like living stones, let ourselves be built into a spiritual house (1 Peter 2:4-9).

Gospel — "Show us the Father," Philip asks Jesus. To which Jesus replies: "Whoever sees me, sees the Father" (John 14:1-12).

CATHOLIC PRAYER CORNER

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided.

Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto you, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother.

To you I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

OUR FASCINATING FAITH

May and Mary

There have long been devotions to our Blessed Mother, but the dedication of the month of May to Mary is a more recent development in the long history of the Church. In the sixteenth century there were month-long Marian devotions, but they were not necessarily associated with May. In medieval times, various celebrations involving Mary occurred in May. But it wasn't until late eighteenth-century Italy that the idea of dedicating May to Mary began to take root. This notion flourished in the nineteenth century and began to foster daily devotions, frequent rosaries, and May crownings around the world. And so May, the lovely month of nature's motherhood, came to be dedicated to our Blessed Mother Mary.

With Mary, the apostles and first disciples kept prayerful vigil for the Spirit's coming, the culmination of Mary's faith-filled lifetime. Mary's faith was shown forth in her acceptance of the angel's word at the Annunciation, her charity in the Visitation to Elizabeth, her trust in Joseph during the flight into Egypt, her steadfast vigil beneath her Son's cross. Throughout these joyful and sorrowful mysteries of her life, Mary's faith-filled heart embraced God's will, making her an instrument for the accomplishment of God's plan for our salvation, and a living model for us of trust and perseverance. For Mary's undaunted faith and the selfless love it inspired, all generations shall call her blessed.

Food for the soul

Registration is now open for the diocese's Eucharistic Revival Days June 3 in Springdale and June 10 in Little Rock. Admission is free and includes two talks, breakout sessions, adoration, Mass and lunch. National speaker Tim Francis will be the keynote speaker. Register today at www.dolr.org to save your spot.

Month of Mary

May is the month traditionally dedicated to honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary. In our churches and homes, we celebrate May as a "Marian month," with May processions, May crownings, the Rosary and other popular devotions in honor of the Mother of God.

The Search Prayer

Lord, there are a great many people who are searching for You and trying to find a place for You in their lives.

Others are trying to renew their faith in You, to rediscover Your love and grace and keep it forever. I am part of these many people who need You.

Please be with me throughout my search and renewal of faith in You. Your love is unconditional and will help the road ahead seem easier.

Help me to put my trust in You, to rely on You in times of need and to share with you my times of joy.

Help me to know that You will always be there for me, for this Search, the fourth day, and all of the other personal searches I will have.

Thank you for making me the unique person I am, and thank You for loving me as "ME". Help me to always know this and help me to always love You.

Through You Son,
Jesus Christ ---
Amen

B. S.

The Search Team is composed of teenagers and adult leaders who have made their Search. They commit to acceptance of God's call to be of service to others. Their behavior reflects what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ.

SEARCH is a time to get to know Christ
SEARCH is planned, prepared and presented by a team of high school juniors and seniors.

SEARCH welcomes high school juniors and Seniors

SEARCH is a weekend for fun, friends and personal growth.

SEARCH may not be the answer, but it just might help you ask some of the right questions. Who am I? Where do I belong? What am I going to do with my life? Where is God in my life?

SEARCH is not a party, but you'll never have more fun discovering something new about the person you were created to be... a good person who can make a difference by becoming more Christ-like.

SEARCH is an opportunity you can't afford to miss. It's a time to be understood, accepted by all without judgment, and a time to make positive life choices.

Peer ministry is an important element of Search. Young people find out by listening to others their own age, that they are normal and that their experiences are pretty typical.

They recognize that the joys and hurts, fears and successes, that come along at this stage of their life are not unusual.

Searchers experience friendship in community. They find others who are willing to share their faith and life stories.

A Marian Glossary

“She is that woman who rejoiced in the presence of God, who treasured everything in her heart, and who let herself be pierced by the sword. Mary is the saint among the saints, blessed above all others. She teaches us the way of holiness and she walks ever at our side. She does not let us remain fallen and at times she takes us into her arms without judging us.” —Pope Francis, Gaudete et Exsultate, no. 176

Below is a brief outline of important terms about or related to the Blessed Mother.

ANNUNCIATION: The visit of the angel Gabriel to the virgin Mary to inform her that she was to be the mother of the Savior. After giving her consent to God’s word, Mary became the mother of Jesus by the power of the Holy Spirit.

ASSUMPTION: The dogma which recognizes the Blessed Virgin Mary’s singular participation in her Son’s Resurrection by which she was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, when the course of her earthly life was finished.

HAIL MARY: The prayer known in Latin as the Ave Maria. The first part of the prayer praises God for the gifts he gave to Mary as Mother of the Redeemer; the second part seeks her maternal intercession for the members of the Body of Christ, the Church, of which she is the Mother.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION: The dogma proclaimed in Christian Tradition and defined in 1854, that from the first moment of her conception, Mary—by the singular grace of God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ—was preserved immune from original sin.

MAGNIFICAT: The title commonly given to the Latin text and vernacular translation of the Cantic (or Song) of Mary that she recites at the time of the visitation. The cantic begins with “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord.”

MARY: The mother of Jesus. Because she is the mother of Jesus—Son of God and second Person of the Blessed Trinity—according to the flesh, she is rightly called the Mother of God (Theotokos). Mary is also called “full of grace,” and “Mother of the Church,” and in Christian prayer and devotion, “Our Lady,” the “Blessed Virgin Mary,” and the “New Eve.”

PRESENTATION: The presentation and dedication of Jesus to God by Mary and Joseph in the Temple (Lk 2:22-39), in accord with Mosaic Law concerning the first-born. At the Presentation, Simeon and Anna sum up the expectation of Israel for the long-awaited Messiah, the light of the nations and the glory of Israel, but also as a sign of contradiction. The presentation of the gifts, especially of bread and wine, is a preparatory rite for the liturgy of the Eucharist at Mass.

ROSARY: A prayer in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which repeats the privileged Marian prayer Ave Maria, or Hail Mary, in “decades” of ten prayers, each preceded by the Pater Noster

(“Our Father”) and concluded by the Gloria Patri (Glory Be to the Father), accompanied by meditation on the mysteries of Christ’s life. The rosary was developed by medieval piety in the Latin church as a popular substitute for the liturgical prayer of the Hours.

VIRGIN BIRTH: The conception of Jesus in the womb of the Virgin Mary solely by the power of the Holy Spirit. The Church’s confession of faith in the virgin birth affirms that Jesus was conceived by the Holy Spirit without human seed.

VIRGIN MARY: The mother of Jesus, who is honored as “ever-virgin” for her perpetual virginity.

VISITATION: At the annunciation, the angel Gabriel told Mary that she would be the mother of the savior. Gabriel also told Mary that her barren cousin, Elizabeth, had conceived a son in her old age. Mary went to visit her cousin and confirmed the truth of the angel’s words. The time she spent with Elizabeth is referred to as “the visitation.”

—Pope Francis, World
Communications Day, 2022

Merchant mariners, fishermen, port workers, and others working in the maritime industries have special pastoral needs to remain connected with their faith. For over a century, Apostleship of the Sea (AOS) has served merchant sailors around the world by providing sacraments and spiritual renewal through port chaplaincies, as well as hospitality, recreational opportunities, and communication with loved ones at home.

In 2013, Apostleship of the Sea of the United States of America developed Stella Maris, the only smartphone app for Catholic merchant sailors. As technology and code systems advanced, the original app became obsolete. In 2022, AOS-USA, using a grant from the Catholic Communication Campaign, rebuilt the app to work on iOS and Android phones. The updated app keeps Catholic seafarers close to their faith by including a directory of AOS chaplains across the United States and around the world, daily prayers and reflections, a feature that allows sailors to submit their own prayer requests, news, and a cruise ship feature that lets cruise passengers know which ships have Catholic priests on board.

Your support of the Catholic Communication Campaign helps AOS-USA engage and build community among Catholic seafarers and their families.

No estamos hechos para vivir como átomos, sino juntos.

—Papa Francisco, Jornada Mundial de las Comunicaciones Sociales, 2022

Los marinos mercantes, los pescadores y demás personas que trabajan en las industrias marítimas tienen necesidades pastorales especiales para poder mantenerse conectados a su fe. Por más de un siglo, el Apostolado del Mar (AOS, en inglés), ha servido a los marineros mercantes en todo el mundo proporcionándoles sacramentos y renovación espiritual por medio de las capellanías, así como también mediante la hospitalidad, las oportunidades recreativas y la comunicación con sus seres queridos en casa.

En el 2013, el Apostolado del Mar-USA creó Stella Maris, la única aplicación para teléfonos inteligentes para marineros mercantes católicos. A medida que la tecnología y los sistemas de código avanzaban, la aplicación original se volvió obsoleta. En el 2022, el AOS-USA, utilizando una subvención de la Campaña Católica de la Comunicación, rehízo la aplicación para que funcionara con los teléfonos iOS y los Androides. Esta aplicación actualizada mantiene a los marineros más cercanos a su fe pues incluye un directorio de capellanes del Apostolado del Mar alrededor de Estados Unidos y del mundo, así como las oraciones y las reflexiones diarias, función que les permite a los marineros presentar sus peticiones de oración y noticias y es también una función en los cruceros, que les permite a los pasajeros saber cuáles buques llevan sacerdotes católicos a bordo.

El apoyo de ustedes a la Campaña Católica de la Comunicación ayuda al AOS-USA a involucrar a los marineros católicos y sus familias y construir comunidad.

Spiritual Motherhood | The Augustine Institute Show

Join Dr. Tim Gray and Sr. Maris Stella for a conversation on the vocation of every woman, that of motherhood. Although all women will not be called to be physical mothers, every woman is called to be a spiritual mother.

The 13th Day

In a world torn apart by persecution, war, and oppression, three children in Fatima were chosen by God to offer an urgent message of hope to the world. Based on the memoirs of the oldest seer, Lucia Santos, The 13th Day dramatizes the true story of three young shepherds who experienced six apparitions of Our Lady, which culminated in the final prophesied miracle on October 13.
