Secretary/Bookkeeper for Mary Mother of God Church-Harrison

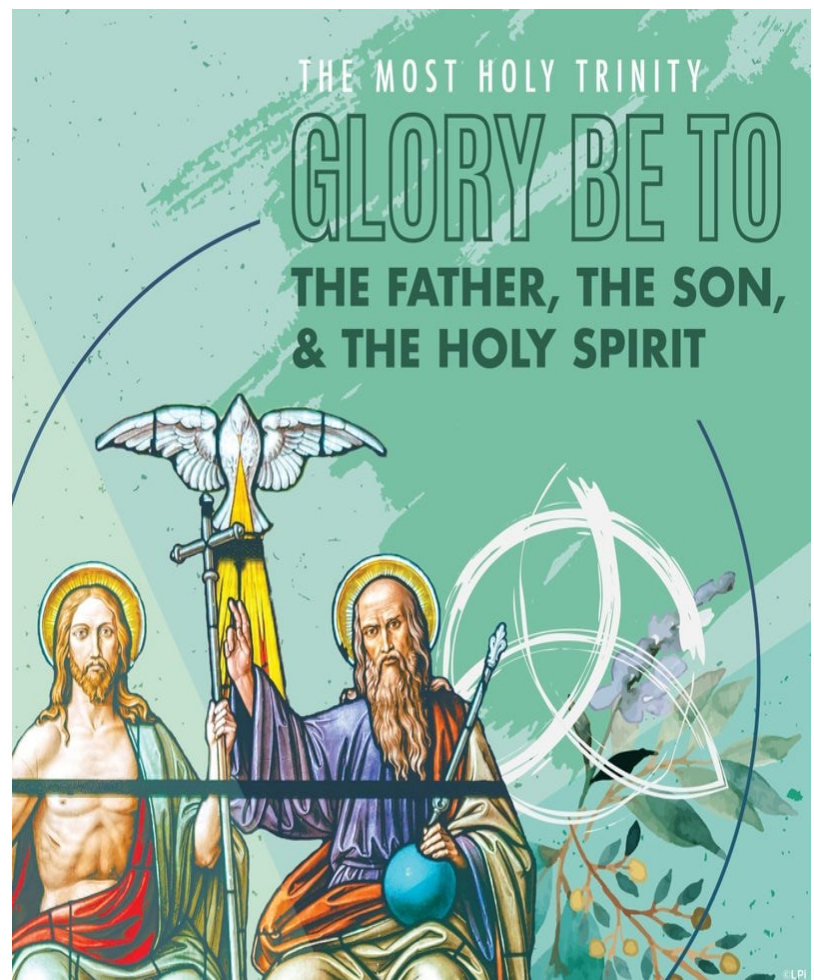

Mary Mother of God Church in Harrison seeks a Secretary/Bookkeeper. The position is scheduled for 40 hours per week with benefits and paid time off. Qualifications include being Catholic, strong accounting and computer proficiencies, excellent written and verbal communication and organization skills, and the ability to interact positively with parishioners and visitors. For more information about the job or to apply by submitting a cover letter and resume, e-mail Father Ben Riley, Pastor at pastor.mmg.church@gmail.com

Divine Mercy Shrine

The Diocesan Shrine of the Divine Mercy will be dedicated Sunday, June 11 by Bishop Anthony B. Taylor following the 12:30 pm bilingual Mass at the Cathedral of St. Andrew in downtown Little Rock. The participants will then walk from the Cathedral to St. Edward Church (about 1 mile) where the bishop will preside over blessing the new image of the Divine Mercy and lead the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. He then will sign the decree creating the Diocesan Shrine. Benediction will conclude the event. Light refreshments will be provided. Everyone is invited to attend. Thereafter the church and the Divine Mercy Shrine will be open to welcome visitors from 8am—4pm Monday through Friday.

SEEKING A DIRECTOR OF CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In my experience, one of the peculiarities of being a man is the somewhat unlikely ability to look into the mirror, no matter how out of shape he may be, and declare with full confidence: “Looking good, buddy!” Ask a man. He’ll probably confirm it.

Therein lies a mystery. You might think I refer to man’s ability to deceive himself or his propensity toward vainglory. But in this case, I refer to the mystery of a healthy and proper sense of self-love. We human beings (both men and women) have the utterly weird ability to look at ourselves as if we were another. Then we tend to love this “other.” Then, somehow, that love becomes a bond between the two. We are three and yet one.

This Sunday is Trinity Sunday. We ponder anew that God in His unity is a play of multiplicity: Lover, Beloved, and shared Love. Or, as we also proclaim, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. If we allow it, this mystery heals our temptation toward self-hatred and destruction. We all know how awful it is to look into the mirror and not know the person we see, or, equally bad, to know and hate who we see. Jesus, the Son of God, draws us into the dynamics of authentic self-knowledge and self-love. Perhaps we could ask the Holy Trinity this Sunday to teach us to truly look at ourselves and to properly love who we see looking back.

— Father John Muir

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity."
(Ex 34:6)

Psalm:

Glory and praise for ever! (Dn 3:52b)

Second Reading:

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you. (2 Cor 13:13)

Gospel:

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.
(Jn 3:17)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

On this Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we are reminded to encourage one another, to show affection and support. Can we do it? Can we do it in our daily interactions, in our families? Can we even do it on social media?

Observances for the week of June 4, 2023

- Sunday: The Most Holy Trinity
Monday: St. Boniface, Bishop and Martyr
Tuesday: St. Norbert, Bishop
Friday: St. Ephrem, Deacon and Doctor of the Church
Next Sunday: The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Saint of the week

Servant of God Julia Greeley, Denver's Angel of Charity, was born into slavery and emancipated after the Civil War. She spent her life serving the poor with a special devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and a love for children and praying for the city's fire fighters.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, Your servant Julia Greeley dedicated her life to honoring the Sacred Heart of Your son and to the humble service of the poor. Grant to me a generous heart like Your son's, and if it be in accordance with your holy will, please grant this favor I now ask through Julia's intercession (insert intention).

I pray this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

At Mount Sinai, the Lord revealed himself to Moses as merciful, gracious, kind, and faithful. Do you see these positive traits in yourself?

Second Reading

In the closing remarks of his second letter to the Corinthians, Paul encouraged the believers in Corinth to live in peace and love with one another, modeled after the grace, love, and fellowship of our Triune God. Where do you think you most need to show peace and love with others this week?

Gospel Reading

Jesus taught his disciples that God loved the world and desired to save the world by offering believers eternal life. How do you think believers having eternal life saves the world?

We Bear the Name of the Lord

The name of the Lord is a curiously powerful thing. Say it deliberately, even in a group of people who are not particularly religious, and you'll know what I mean. There is a shift in the mood, a change in the atmosphere. When we utter the name of the Lord, He turns His head.

Once, in confession, I admitted to the sin of using the Lord's name in vain. "When you do that, tell God that you love him," advised the priest, who was wise enough to know that I would repeat this sin at some point. "You've said His name, after all. You have His attention."

We hear the name of the Lord, and we think of what it represents — John 3:16, salvation history summed up in a neat little sentence, the why and the how and the who of it all laid out before us. The Lord, so slow to anger that He offers us a million chances. The Lord, so rich in kindness and fidelity that He literally gave Himself to us that we might be saved.

But the name of the Lord is more than that. It is not just a symbol, it is an invitation. I think of Moses clutching the commandments, beseeching the Lord: "Come with us. Forgive us. Receive us as your own." The Lord accompanies us down the mountain. We bear the name of the Lord into the world with us wherever we go.

I have to ask myself: do I do that name justice?

*"Blessed is your holy and glorious name, praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages."
— Daniel 3:52*

Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

We live in a country that upholds the separation of Church and state. What is the role of Catholics in society?

Answer:

The role of the Church in the world has taken different forms over time, but the theme is the same. Be disciples in it! As the lay faithful — that is, not vowed priest or religious — we are called to live and love in the circumstances of our daily lives. St. John Paul II wrote a document about the laity. In it he wrote, "In their situation in the world God manifests His plan and communicates to them their particular vocation of seeking the Kingdom of God by engaging in temporal affairs and by ordering them according to the plan of God" (On the Lay Members of Christ's Faithful, 15).

God wants us in the hospitals, the board rooms, the law offices, the food pantries, and the little league games! We are to engage in the affairs of the world. But when we're there, we should live the plan of God. We need to respect those around us, engage in just business and legal practices, and love our children. We should care for the earth, use our money wisely, and get to know our neighbors. We must advocate for social policies that respect human dignity and human freedom. No matter our state in life, we are invited to build the kingdom of God!

Food for the soul

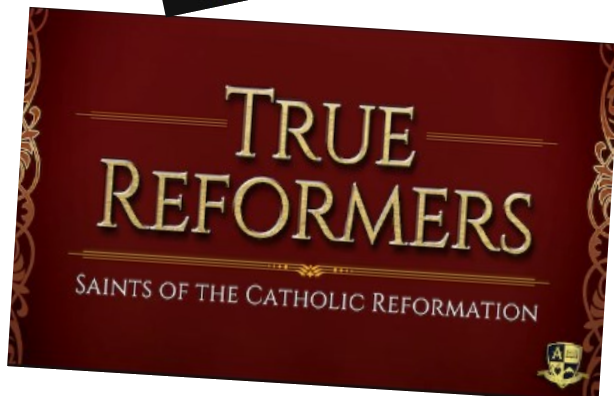

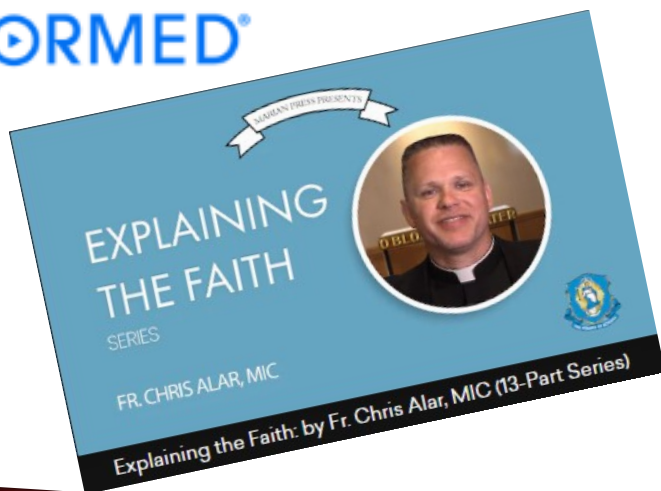

Registration is now open for the diocese's Eucharistic Revival Days June 3 in Springdale and June 10 in Little Rock. Admission is free and includes two talks, breakout sessions, adoration, Mass and lunch. National speaker Tim Francis will be the keynote speaker. Register today at www.dolr.org to save your spot.

The Search Prayer

Lord, there are a great many people who are searching for You and trying to find a place for You in their lives.

Others are trying to renew their faith in You, to rediscover Your love and grace and keep it forever. I am part of these many people who need You.

Please be with me throughout my search and renewal of faith in You. Your love is unconditional and will help the road ahead seem easier.

Help me to put my trust in You, to rely on You in times of need and to share with you my times of joy.

Help me to know that You will always be there for me, for this Search, the fourth day, and all of the other personal searches I will have.

Thank you for making me the unique person I am, and thank You for loving me as "ME". Help me to always know this and help me to always love You.

Through You Son,
Jesus Christ ---
Amen

B. S.

The Search Team is composed of teenagers and adult leaders who have made their Search. They commit to acceptance of God's call to be of service to others. Their behavior reflects what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ.

SEARCH is a time to get to know Christ
SEARCH is planned, prepared and presented by a team of high school juniors and seniors.

SEARCH welcomes high school juniors and Seniors

SEARCH is a weekend for fun, friends and personal growth.

SEARCH may not be the answer, but it just might help you ask some of the right questions. Who am I? Where do I belong? What am I going to do with my life? Where is God in my life?

SEARCH is not a party, but you'll never have more fun discovering something new about the person you were created to be... a good person who can make a difference by becoming more Christ-like.

SEARCH is an opportunity you can't afford to miss. It's a time to be understood, accepted by all without judgment, and a time to make positive life choices.

Peer ministry is an important element of Search. Young people find out by listening to others their own age, that they are normal and that their experiences are pretty typical.

They recognize that the joys and hurts, fears and successes, that come along at this stage of their life are not unusual.

Searchers experience friendship in community. They find others who are willing to share their faith and life stories.
