Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

The world is filled with people whose basic needs aren't met, whether for clean water, nutrition, safety, education, meaningful work, stable family life, basic medical resources, religious freedom, and the right to life. So how can we possibly believe what Psalm 145 says to us this week, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs"? Does he? What about the countless poor? Can't we identify at least a few unmet needs in our own lives right now? Is the Bible promoting wishful thinking and laziness in helping others?

No. The psalm flows from Israel's experience of God's relentless fidelity again and again —especially in the Passover from Egypt. This divine providence is recalled when Jesus feeds the needy multitudes in the Gospel of John. Passover arrives once again, and the people are hungry like the ancient Israelites on the wilderness journey. What is new is that in Jesus God not only provides for their needs, but He learns what it's like to have those human needs. He shares them too. He feeds them bread and fish; and even more, He hungers to provide them, and us, much more than just that kind of perishable food.

Our deepest need is for God. Like the multiplied bread, all earthly provisions ultimately fail, for we all finally die. Of course, our obligation to meet the needs of the poor is basic. But Christ promises to feed us with the one bread that never fails: God Himself. He is humanity's eternal food. If we eat this bread, we taste the faithfulness of God who answers all our needs, even when every earthly thing fails.

— Father John Muir

Let us always answer: "Jesus. Jesus is where we can find what we need."

Prayer for God to Work

Dear Jesus,
You and I know that what I bring to you is small pieces — small faith, small gifts, small generosity. But I also know that you are not bound by that.
Two fish and five loaves can feed 5000, when placed in your hands. So, I place everything I have in your hands, too. Complete your work, Lord.
Amen.

Trusting in the Lord, Elisha was able to feed a hundred people with just twenty barley loaves and fresh grain. Can you think of a time when you had to trust in the Lord?

Second Reading:

Paul urges the church in Ephesus to live in unity and holiness. What are some signs that a community is holy and united?

Gospel:

After Jesus fed the crowds with the multiplication of loaves and fish, he withdrew to the mountain alone. When do you find the need to be alone?

Take More

It doesn't matter what time of day we visit my mother-in-law — she always has food to offer. If we take two helpings, she will encourage us to take three. If we take three helpings, she will say, "Coraggio — take more." (She's Italian, in case you couldn't tell from the food-pushing and the language.)

When Jesus feeds the five thousand with the miracle of the loaves and fish, he does not produce just enough food to feed everyone who is there. He certainly could — that would be within his power. And he shows concern about waste, so it would make sense for him to do that. But instead, he deliberately overproduces. He creates more food than is necessary. He makes an abundance of it. Why?

I think it's for the same reason my mother-in-law keeps urging us to eat when we come to her house. Feeding people is not just a functional action. It's a gesture. It shows love. It shows concern. It shows welcome. Having an abundance of food — so much that there is some left over — is a sign that you don't care how much someone wants — you are ready to give whatever they are ready to take. You are ready to give recklessly. You are ready to give them not just all they need but also all they could want.

I think of this when I approach the sacrament of Confession. Time and time again I walk up to the door of that little room, a list of oft-repeated sins in my hand and a sense of shame on my heart.

Here I am again, Jesus. Back for more mercy. Hope you haven't run out.

He hasn't yet. He never will. "Coraggio," he whispers deep in my heart, "take more."

"When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, 'This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world.'" — John 6:14

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

My coworkers and I have been debating the death penalty and whether or not it should be part of our justice system. Why are so many people who claim to be pro-life believers in favor of it?

Answer:

The issues of crime and punishment are never easy because so many factors influence people and how they view problems and solutions. Increased violence, loss of life, cost to taxpayers and the community at large, and the maneuverings of lawyers and courts only add fuel to the fire. When bad things happen in your neighborhood or to your home or to you, you want relief. Any normal person would feel that way. A pro-life view does not insulate anyone from the bad effects of criminal behavior. Innocent people are hurt every day and it may seem as though those who cause the pain get away with it, or get off easy.

The death penalty is not excluded by Church teaching. The state has the right to impose penalties that are commensurate with the crime as well as to defend itself from further harm (Catechism of the Catholic Church, §2266). When possible, punishment should help correct the offender, offering a chance of redemption, which is why the pope and bishops have called for an end to the death penalty. PRAYERS IN THE PEW™

National Eucharistic Revival Supplement – July 2024

Like the disciples on the Road to Emmaus, we have journeyed a long way to arrive at the National Eucharistic Congress which takes place this month! Together, we make a deep act of faith in our Eucharistic Lord.

THE NECESSITY OF FAITH AND MORAL LIVING

Eucharistic Saint

St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1275 AD) is called the Eucharistic Doctor of the Church. His main work, the Summa Theologica contains a sublime summary of the Church's teaching on the Eucharist. In 1264 he was asked by Pope Urban IV to compose the prayers and hymns for the Church's primary Eucharistic feast: Corpus Christi.

Back to Basics

THE MIRACLE OF TRANSUBSTANTIATION: Transubstantiation is a miracle, pure and simple, and we witness it at every single Mass. It occurs at the consecration when the bread and wine become the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus through the words and actions of the priest.

At that moment, the inner substance of bread and wine becomes Christ Himself, while the external or "accidental" forms remain the same. This is a spiritual change which we cannot see with our eyes, so we must believe it with faith, as Jesus said to Thomas: "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed" (John 20:29). The Church tells us:

"It has always been the conviction of the Church of God... that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of his blood." (CCC, 1376)

Calls to Action

Faith – There is a sad moment in John's Gospel when some of Jesus' disciples abandon Him because they could not accept His claim that He was the "living bread that came down from heaven" (Jn 6:51, 66). We must not walk away from our Lord but rather make a pure act of faith in His words each time we receive the Eucharist.

Worthiness – Even then, mere belief is not enough. We must reform our lives, live in full communion with the Catholic Church (CCC, 1395), and be in a state of grace in order to receive the Eucharist worthily. These are the basics of our Eucharistic faith.

"There are two things the devil is deadly afraid of: fervent Communion and frequent visits to the Blessed Sacrament." ~ St. John Bosco

Faith Formation Companion to Prayers in the Pew™

→ MONTHLY SYNOPSIS ←

July 2024 – July is dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ, which is echoed in our Eucharistic themes this month. In the midst of the summer season, let us strive to develop virtue and cultivate a sense of prayer in all we do.

TANTUM ERGO

In the year 1264 AD, Pope Urban IV established the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (often referred to simply as Corpus Christi) as the preeminent Eucharistic feast of the Church. In fact, it was the first papally-imposed feast to be entered into the liturgical calendar.

In doing so, Urban didn't settle for a second rate theologian to help him. He commissioned the Church's greatest living theologian, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1275) to compose the prayers and hymns for the feast. St. Thomas was living near the pope in Orvieto, Italy at that time, and they were both aware of the Eucharistic miracle that had taken place in a nearby city, Bolsena, just the year before (1263).

The Tantum Ergo is actually an excerpt from a longer hymn entitled "Pange Lingua Gloriosi," of which the Tantum Ergo comprises the last two verses. The hymn extols and explains in poetic language the miracle ↗

THE SCHOOL OF SAINTS

"The devotion to the Eucharist is the most noble, because it has God as its object; it is the most profitable for salvation, because it gives us the Author of Grace; it is the sweetest, because the Lord is Sweetness Itself." ~ Pope St. Pius X

"Oh most sweet and bountiful Jesus, what a great reverence, what giving of thanks, with perpetual praise, is due to you for the reception of your sacred Body and Blood, whose dignity no man is able to sufficiently express." ~ Thomas à Kempis, Imitation of Christ of transubstantiation that takes place at each celebration of the Eucharistic sacrifice.

The "Pange Lingua" is normally sung on Holy Thursday and Corpus Christi during the Eucharistic processions. The Tantum Ergo is most familiar to the faithful from its use as the hymn that is sung during Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at the end of Eucharistic Adoration.

TANTUM ERGO

*Down in adoration falling,
Lo! the Sacred Host we hail,
Lo! o'er ancient forms departing
Newer rites of grace prevail;
Faith for all defects supplying,
Where the feeble senses fail.*

*To the Everlasting Father,
And the Son Who reigns on high
With the Holy Ghost proceeding
Forth from Each eternally,
Be salvation, honor, blessing,
Might, and endless majesty.
Amen.*

"I write mostly confessional non-fiction."

FAITH FUNDAMENTALS

Eucharistic Adoration

Catholics regard the Eucharist as the very Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ Himself, offered in sacrifice on the altar of the Cross. What an amazing gift of God to the human race! Our teaching about this Blessed Sacrament has never changed and never will change.

1. The Sacrament of the Eucharist was instituted by Christ as a perpetual memorial of His Passion and Death. We “do this in remembrance” of Him (Luke 22:19).
2. The Eucharist is not a symbol but is the actual Body and Blood of Christ offered in an unbloody (that is, sacramental) manner on the altar each day.
3. Not only do we participate in the celebration of the Eucharist, but most importantly, we worship the Eucharist as divine and holy.

This last point explains the reason why we maintain tabernacles in our churches and why we are able to worship the Eucharist outside of Mass. It is Christ we worship, not just when He is present at Mass but also wherever the sacred Host is reserved or displayed for public worship. Many parishes even have adoration chapels so that the faithful may pray in silence before the Eucharist and continue the angelic work of adoring the Lord in His Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity.

BIBLE BASICS

Psalm 78:24-25 God rained manna upon them for food; grain from heaven he gave them. Man ate the bread of the angels; food he sent in abundance.

John 6:34-35 So they said to him, “Sir, give us this bread always.” Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.”

CATECHISM CONNECTION

1324 The Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian life.” The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself, our Pasch.

Praying with the National Eucharistic Revival

The long-anticipated National Eucharistic Congress will occur this July 17-21 in Indianapolis. Even if we cannot attend this wonderful event, let us pray in union with the participants and with the intention of our bishops who seek to revive faith and love for the Eucharist in our nation and in our world.

Prayer Before Benediction

This prayer is offered by the priest with responses from the people who attend the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at the end of Eucharistic Adoration. It comes immediately after the Tantum Ergo and before the priest ascends the altar for Benediction:

V. Thou hast given them bread from heaven.
R. Having within it all sweetness.

V. Let us pray: O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament left us a memorial of Thy Passion: grant, we implore Thee, that we may so venerate the Sacred Mysteries of Thy Body and Blood, as always to be conscious of the fruit of Thy Redemption. Thou who livest and reignest forever and ever.
R. Amen.

St. Alphonsus Liguori | Catholic Saints

Born to a noble Italian family and known as the "Prince of Moral Theologians", St. Alphonsus Liguori was a great preacher, lawyer, bishop, theologian, and Doctor of the Church.
