To the people of the Diocese of Little Rock,

As you know from the news, the ongoing crisis in Gaza has left many people in desperate circumstances. Our Church mourns the terrible suffering of Christians and other innocent victims of violence in Gaza and surrounding areas. These people are struggling to survive, protect their children and live with dignity in dire conditions. Pope Leo XIV continues to call for a cease fire and for aid to enter the territory.

Given the extraordinary nature of this crisis, we have been asked to take up a special collection to provide humanitarian relief and pastoral support through either the Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA) or Catholic Relief Services (CRS). Both organizations have well-established partnerships with the Catholic Church in the region. Moreover, I am a member of the board of directors of CRS and so have chosen CRS to be the recipient of donations from the Diocese of Little Rock, but any donations intended for CNEWA will be sent to them.

I am asking that all priests make arrangements to take up a second collection, as soon as reasonably possible, to assist the suffering people of Gaza and send it to the diocese for transmittal to CRS. Thank you for your generosity and your prayers for the suffering people of Gaza.

Al Pueblo de la Diócesis de Little Rock:

Como sabrán por las noticias, la continua crisis en Gaza ha dejado a mucha gente en circunstancias desesperadas. Nuestra Iglesia lamenta el terrible sufrimiento de los cristianos y otras víctimas inocentes de violencia en Gaza y en los alrededores. Estas personas están luchando para sobrevivir, proteger a sus hijos y vivir con dignidad en condiciones apremiantes. El Papa León XIV sigue pidiendo un cese al fuego y que se permita la entrada de ayuda al territorio.

Dada la naturaleza extraordinaria de esta crisis, se nos ha pedido tomar una colecta especial para proveer ayuda humanitaria y apoyo pastoral a través de la Asociación Católica para el Bienestar del Cercano Oriente (CNEWA, por sus siglas en inglés) o Servicios Católicos de Ayuda (CRS, por sus siglas en inglés). Ambas organizaciones cuentan con colaboraciones bien establecidas con la Iglesia católica en la región. Además, soy miembro de la junta directiva de CRS, por lo que he elegido a CRS para ser el destinatario de los donativos de la Diócesis de Little Rock, pero cualquier donativo destinado para CNEWA se enviará a ellos.

Pido que todos los sacerdotes hagan arreglos para tomar una segunda colecta, tan pronto como sea razonablemente posible, para ayudar al pueblo sufriente de Gaza y enviarla a la diócesis para remitirla a CRS. Gracias por su generosidad y oraciones por el pueblo sufriente de Gaza.

Sinceramente en Cristo,

+Anthony B. Taylor
Obispo de Little Rock

Devotions, Explained!

Defined by a monophonic (meaning a single melody without harmony or chords), unaccompanied song, Gregorian chant is a form of sacred music used in liturgical settings and prayer. It has been synonymous with Catholic musical worship since the first millennium.

Prayer for Bravery

Dear God,
In the moments when my faith is met with others' disdain or ridicule, give me the grace to be grounded in You. Remind me that Your mission matters, and that You alone bring comfort, healing, and salvation.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

During my baseball career, my best coach often said, “You shouldn’t be worried if I yell at you. Be worried if I don’t. If I stop pushing you, it means I don’t think you have any more potential.” He demanded a lot, and I knew it meant he saw that I could be something special on the baseball field.

Jesus says some demanding words to us this week.

“Do you think I have come to establish peace on the earth?” he asks, “No, tell you, but rather division” (Luke 12:51). He wants you and me—in fact, all the earth—to participate in the luminous glory of God. That’s why he speaks of himself as a divine arsonist. Divine fire is like a good coach: it demands the removal of all that obstructs the achievement of the lofty goal.

How is your life demanding right now? That inconvenient family situation, the unfair boss at work, the kids who reject their parents’ wishes, the nagging health issue? Maybe things would be more peaceful devoid of these seemingly arbitrary difficulties. But for us who believe in the one who comes to set the earth of fire, we should be much more worried if he stops demanding so much from us. In fact, let’s thank him for it. He sees how glorious we can become.

— Father John Muir

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing! ... Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division." - Lk 12:49, 51

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

One of the court officials, Ebed-Melech, pleaded for Jeremiah to be rescued from a muddy cistern. How might you help a friend or colleague this week?

Second Reading:

The author of Hebrews encourages his community to focus on Jesus as a way to stay strong and hopeful. Can you think of a time when your faith in Jesus helped you through a challenging circumstance?

Gospel:

Jesus forewarns his disciples that even families will be divided over his words. Growing up, how did your family deal with tension and conflict?

Mini Reflection: If we let Christ set fire to our lives, what would that fire burn away? What dead and festering undergrowth in our souls would be consumed by the flames? What promise of future holiness would sprout from beneath the ashes?

The Fire

This past week I have been reading a biography of St. Francis of Assisi. I admit I didn't know much about Francis going into the book, but I always had this image of him as a hippie — an easygoing nature-lover who sang about peace and let animals climb on him.

I'm not sure where that caricature of Francis came from, but since I've been reading this book I've come to see that it's not true at all. He was a lover of nature, yes. A poet who sang of God's peace, yes. And I'm sure he let a few animals climb on him from time to time (he did live in a hut in the woods).

But St. Francis of Assisi wasn't the lost fourth member of Peter, Paul and Mary. He was a man on fire. He was a man burning.

Francis walked around barefoot and slept on the ground. He abandoned a life of wealth to embrace the material poverty that Christ experienced. He embarrassed his family and they disowned him. When his father would encounter Francis in the streets of Assisi, he would curse him.

Sometimes we get this idea that Christianity is a comfortable, cozy thing. We give our lives to Christ, and we expect to feel instantly satisfied, happy, safe and warm. But the saints knew better.

The saints knew that Christ had not come to wrap us in a warm blanket. Christ has come to set us on fire. And though fire is often seen as a sign of death and destruction, it is also the precursor of new life.

Think of a field of native plants and how it benefits so richly from a controlled burn — an action that clears away detritus and releases nutrients back into the soil.

If we let Christ set fire to our lives, what would that fire burn away? What dead and festering undergrowth in our souls would be consumed by the flames? What promise of future holiness would sprout from beneath the ashes?

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why do we have a feast for the Queenship of Mary?

Answer:

For many of us, the language of kings and queens may seem like they belong to history or a medieval movie. Royalty have absolute authority over a kingdom and their subjects, a concept that is foreign to many of us today. While Jesus doesn't rule a political kingdom, we honor and recognize him as the King of Kings, Lord of Heaven and Earth. To God alone belongs absolute authority over all of existence.

We may think of queens as the spouse of the king, but there is another key relationship: the king's mother. In Biblical history, we see instances where the mother of the king is given due as a queen herself, complete with a throne! Mary's guiding influence over her Son is seen most notably in the Wedding Feast at Cana. Mary is not Queen on her own merit. She is "full of grace" and "blessed" in "all ages" because of the reign of her Son.

STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH AT HOME

On Sunday, August 17 we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its current and former territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support for this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. Find more information at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Do you desire to deepen or strengthen or learn more about personal prayer?

Do you desire “more” from your prayer life? Do you find it difficult to pray regularly? Do you desire to be able to listen more while praying? If you answer “yes” to any of the above questions, we might have just the opportunity for you. Take a look at our prayer offerings below. God might just be inviting you to join one of them so that He can aid you in what you desire. Trained companions and spiritual directors lead groups for beginners as well as experienced prayers.
