Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

The suffering of a child symbolizes uniquely terrible evil as well as despair about the future. This week's Gospel gives a "limit" case in which Jesus encounters this evil in the form of a mother with a suffering daughter. What he does is stunning and massively helpful for us if we bravely ponder the details.

The Canaanite woman comes to Jesus and begs his mercy. "My daughter is tormented by a demon," she declares to him. Shockingly, he responds first with silence, then with a dismissive comment, and only then finally accedes to her third request. Is this simply a lesson in perseverance in our petitions to God, who is like a genie in a bottle? Does that justify the humiliation and pain this woman suffers? Is the Lord cruel?

I don't think so. Notice how the encounter ends. She compares herself to a dog at the table of a master. Jesus responds by praising her great faith and fulfills her deep desire. Somehow this non-Israelite woman intuits that this harrowing situation is not dumb suffering. She senses that the door of God's family is, in Jesus, being opened to her and her loved ones. She trusts she is at the Lord's table, and her desires will be fulfilled and that all her sufferings — and her daughter's, too — will lead a great banquet. In our sufferings this week, the Lord wants us to treat him less like a genie in a bottle and more like the Master who has taken us — lost little dogs that we are — into his home forever. Trust that and keep praying in the face of evil.

— Father John Muir

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"O woman, great is your faith!" The Canaanite woman stood firm in her belief that God would answer her — even when those closest to him tried to send her away, and even when Christ himself challenged her. She never wavered.

Saint of the week

Venerable Mother Celestina Bottego was born in Ohio. She went on to be the foundress of the Xavier Missionaries Sisters of Mary in Italy. The Sisters rejected the traditional habit commonly worn by religious women in favor of wearing the same clothing styles as those they served.

Prayer

Almighty and merciful Father, You placed in the heart of Mother Celestina Bottego the ardent desire that Your Kingdom spread throughout the world and made her capable of giving all of herself for the creation of a missionary Family. We humbly ask You to allow us to imitate her holiness of life and, through her intercession, to grant us the grace that we confidently ask of You.

Liturgical Life

"It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

The Lord instructed the prophet Isaiah to be open to "foreigners" (nations other than Israel) for God's covenant with Israel is intended for all people. How welcoming are you to outsiders in your life?

Second Reading

Paul believed that Israel's rejection of Jesus became a vehicle for God to reveal his mercy to all people, Jew and Gentile alike. Is there someone in your life who needs your mercy and forgiveness?

Gospel Reading

Jesus rewards the Canaanite woman for her great faith by granting the woman's request to heal her daughter. Who would you say has helped you grow in your faith?

The Prayers God Always Answers

When I was a child, my mother bought a book called “The Prayers God Will Always Answer.” I remember my anticipation as I cracked the spine and turned to the first page.

I had been spending a lot of time asking God — begging God, actually — over and over again for some specific things that were not materializing. Frankly, it was beginning to feel a lot like that time I asked Santa Claus for a new house, only to wake up on Christmas morning to find ordinary, non-house-shaped presents under the tree — and a growing sense of suspicion that my faith had been ill-placed.

To the great disappointment of my pre-teen heart, my mother’s book was not a directory of magical phrases God is compelled to obey. It was a list that included things like “Forgive me” and “Help me.” I tossed it aside, disappointed.

I marvel at the wisdom and the confidence of the Canaanite woman who persists in begging Jesus to heal her daughter. She is ignored, and still she will not be deterred. The disciples try to dismiss her — still, she presses on. Christ himself challenges her, and her faith makes her ready with a reply.

Somehow, I am sure that even if Christ had said, “No, it cannot be done for you as you wish,” she would have still dropped to her knees and worshiped him, because she knew what I did not: God is not a vending machine, and he’s not the genie from “Aladdin.” Prayer is not a negotiation, but a relationship.

The story of the Canaanite woman is not a story about how to get God to give you what you want. It is a story about the prayers God always answers.

“Then Jesus said to her in reply, ‘O woman, great is your faith!’” — Matthew 15:28

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What is the meaning of the letters that professed religious have after their names?

Answer:

The Catholic Church includes hundreds of religious communities. The priests, religious brothers, religious sisters, and nuns of these communities (which are often referred to as “religious orders”) are committed to particular spiritual traditions and often to a particular charism (such as teaching, healthcare, social work, or pastoral care).

To help identify a person as a member of a particular religious community, the custom developed of including post-nominal letters that provide a sort of shorthand for the name of the community that the priest, brother, sister or nun is part of. So, for example OSB after a person’s name would indicate that they are a member of the Order of St. Benedict (the Benedictines), just as SJ would indicate that a priest or brother is a member of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) or RSM would show that a woman is a Sister of Mercy.

Other common examples include:

DC = Daughters of Charity
 FSC = The Brothers of the Christian Schools/Christian Brothers
 OCist = The Order of Cistercians
 OCD = Order of Discalced Carmelites
 OFM = The Order of Friars Minor (the Franciscans)
 OFM Cap = The Capuchin Franciscans
 OP = The Order of Preachers (Dominicans)
 OSF=Franciscan Sisters
 SC = Sisters of Charity
 SDS = Society of the Divine Savior (Salvatorian Priests and Brothers and Salvatorian Sisters)
 SSND = School Sisters of Notre Dame
 SVD = Society of the Divine Word (Divine Word Missionaries)

PRAYERS IN THE PEW™

National Eucharistic Revival Supplement – August 2023

Brothers and Sisters, this month we fully unite ourselves with the US Bishops in the National Eucharistic Revival and pray for the grace to increase our devotion to Christ in the Eucharist.

THEME FOR AUGUST: THE EUCHARISTIC HEART OF OUR LADY

Eucharistic Saint

St. Maximilian Kolbe (1894-1941). Few saints in the history of the Church were more devoted to Our Lady, but St. Maximilian's Marian devotion was imbued with a profound love for the Eucharist. Kolbe believed that "Eucharistic Adoration is the greatest power in the universe, capable of transforming us and changing the face of the world." The saint died a martyr in the Nazi concentration camp at Auschwitz, sacrificing his life for others, in imitation of our Eucharistic Lord.

Back to Basics

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the very Sacrifice offered on Calvary. It is not a symbol or an acting out of the drama. It is the same Act of Christ offered in an unbloody way by the priest at Mass who stands at the altar and acts in persona Christi – "in the person of Christ."

The Catechism tells us that Our Lady's intercession for the sins of humanity originated right there, at Calvary: "In the Eucharist, the church is as it were at the foot of the cross with Mary, united with the offering and intercession of Christ" (CCC, 1370).

Teaching

The last of Pope John Paul II's fourteen papal encyclicals was on the Eucharist, Ecclesia de Eucharistia, in which he used a profound analogy to speak of Mary's participation in the Eucharistic Mystery. It's a stunning metaphor:

Mary also anticipated, in the mystery of the incarnation, the Church's Eucharistic faith. When, at the Visitation, she bore in her womb the Word made flesh, she became in some way a "tabernacle" – the first "tabernacle" in history – in which the Son of God, still invisible to our human gaze, allowed himself to be adored by Elizabeth, radiating his light as it were through the eyes and the voice of Mary. (EdE, 55)

Calls to Action

Personal: Try to find time this week to sit in church or in an adoration chapel and adore our Precious Lord for a few moments at least. Communal: Research the Eucharistic Pilgrimages that will be taking place prior to the Eucharistic Congress next year and consider joining in. (See the link below). Please spread our Eucharistic faith with the Prayers in the Pew Prayer Cards.

"A thousand years of enjoying human glory is not worth even an hour spent sweetly communing with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament." ~ St. Padre Pio

Faith Formation Companion to Prayers in the Pew™

→ MONTHLY SYNOPSIS ←

August 2023 – In August, the Church remembers and celebrates the great mystery of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. She was sinless from the first moment of her conception and after her death was taken up by Christ – body and soul – to reign with Him in heaven. Let us live this month in prayer and devotion to Mother Mary, our Queen, and in union with the extraordinary number of saints whose feasts surround her this month.

THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacraments are tangible signs instituted by Christ to give grace. The Catholic Church recognizes seven sacraments and divides them into three categories:

Sacraments of Initiation

Baptism – Removes Original Sin; infuses sanctifying grace into the soul; makes us members of the Church; gives us Faith, Hope, and Love; establishes our relationship with God the Father.

Eucharist – The greatest of all the sacraments; the source and summit of our life; a true re-enactment of Christ's sacrifice at Calvary; the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ; establishes our relationship with God the Son.

Confirmation – Increases the graces given at Baptism; anoints us to be soldiers of Christ for the Christian mission in the world; establishes our relationship with the Holy Spirit.

Sacraments of Healing

Penance – Christ liberated people from sin and gave the power of forgiving sins to His Church (John 20:23). This sacrament's four essential elements are Contrition, Confession, Absolution by a priest, and Satisfaction (performing a penance).

Anointing of the Sick – Christ sent His apostles to anoint

the sick with oil (Mark 6:13) and the ordained leaders of the Church the power to anoint the sick (James 5:14) for healing of body and soul.

Sacraments at the Service of Communion

Matrimony – A baptized man and woman are joined in an unbreakable, permanent union through their wedding vows. The couple symbolizes the love of the Bridegroom (Christ) for His Bride (the Church) and anticipates the marriage banquet of Heaven.

Holy Orders – A baptized man with a calling from God receives a share in the Priesthood of Jesus Christ through ordination. The three degrees of this sacrament are bishop, priest and deacon. The Church's ordained ministers carry out the three-fold ministry of word, sacrament, and service.

SPIRITUAL CHALLENGE

This month, let us challenge ourselves to arrive early to Mass and spend time recollecting our souls in preparation for the reception of Word and Sacrament during the liturgy. Secondly, instead of rushing out of the church after Mass, let us spend five extra minutes giving thanks to the Lord so that we may reap the interior fruits of the divine Gift we have just received.

BIBLE BASICS

Matthew 28:19-20 "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

John 20:21-23 "[Jesus] said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.'"

THE SCHOOL OF SAINTS

"The devotion to the Eucharist is the most noble, because it has God as its object; it is the most profitable for salvation, because it gives us the Author of Grace; it is the sweetest, because the Lord is Sweetness Itself."

~ Pope St. Pius X

"When you look at the crucifix, you understand how much Jesus loved you then. When you look at the Sacred Host, you understand how much Jesus loves you now."

~ St Teresa of Calcutta

"The spiritual virtue of a sacrament is like light; although it passes among the impure, it is not polluted."

~ St. Augustine of Hippo

CATECHISM CONNECTION

1116 "Sacraments are 'powers that comes forth' from the Body of Christ, which is ever-living and life-giving. They are actions of the Holy Spirit at work in his Body, the Church. They are 'the masterworks of God' in the new and everlasting covenant."

1131 "The sacraments are efficacious signs of grace, instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church, by which divine life is dispensed to us. The visible rites by which the sacraments are celebrated signify and make present the graces proper to each sacrament. They bear fruit in those who receive them with the required dispositions."

..... Year of Parish Revival

The US Catholic Bishops have declared 2023-2024 as the Year of Parish Revival in preparation for the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis (July 17-21, 2024).

Please see the Bishops' Eucharistic Revival's website EucharisticRevival.org for more information.

Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age.

Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread.

Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering.

Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
