Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Since my college days I've loved a song called "Dance with You" by the rock band Live. It touches on the deep mystical hunger of our heart: "I've tasted all the wines/ a half a billion times/ came sickened to your shore/ you showed me what this life is for." These lines resonate with anyone who has feasted on the good things of this world only to be left spiritually hungover and unsatisfied.

We see a similar dynamic evoked by Jesus' words after he feeds the crowd with bread and fish. To teach them to hunger for God, he recalls God's gift of manna-bread for the hungry ancient Israelites. Those folks had grown spiritually sick from the idolatrous food of Egypt yet still longed for more worthless pagan food. So, God sent heavenly bread to nourish their bodies, but also to heal their distrustful hearts. His people — like us — must learn to hunger and thirst for God alone. Before we can receive that which will not disappoint, we first must cease expecting that earthly goods will satisfy us.

We will get to the Lord's teaching on the Eucharist in the next two weeks. But first, he asks us: do you trust me to take care of you? Do you trust me to give you what you need for each day, and to not worry about the next day? Do you see that when you hungrily stuff yourself with the things of this world you become sick and lose your taste for the bread of life? So, our hungry hearts cry out: Lord, help us to trust that you'll provide for our every need. Help us to use only what we truly need. Help us hunger for the goodness of your Son, who is the true bread from heaven. That is what this life is for.

— Father John Muir

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus reminds his followers: "Do not work for food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life." We are so often distracted by the world before us, by the here and now. Let us not forget what is eternal. We were made for what is eternal.

Saint of the week

St. Martin de Porres (1579- 1639) is the first Black saint of the Americas. He had a great love of the Eucharist and was known for caring equally for all regardless of race or status. He founded an orphanage and school and even cared for the mice and rats at his monastery.

Prayer of Hunger

Dear Jesus,
You are the one who fed the hungry. But your work doesn't only exist on the pages of an old book. You're working now. Work in us, to bring food to those in need.
Work in us, to satisfy the places we most need you.
Amen.

Jesus said to them, “Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.” - Jn 6:32-33

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

God heard the plea of the Israelites who feared they would die of starvation in the desert and in response, God sent them quail and bread to eat. What will you pray for this week?

Second Reading:

Paul taught the Gentiles of the Ephesian church to give up their former way of life and live with renewed minds in the truth of Jesus. What have you gained by being a believer in Jesus?

Gospel:

Jesus teaches the crowds in Capernaum that he is “the bread of life” who feeds all who believe in him. Is there someone you know hungry for Jesus?

Food That Perishes

It's so easy to do the right thing because we want to tick all the right boxes. We want to live by the law. We want to accomplish the work of God.

Or, at least, we say that we do.

But Jesus tells us that in order to accomplish the work of God, we have to believe in the one he sent. And to believe in Christ is to be filled with the spirit of truth — to do what is right because it is right, not because we want to be filled with good feelings.

What is the difference between doing what is right because you want to be a good Christian, and doing what is right because you believe in Christ?

It's the difference between eating manna and the Eucharist. One fills your stomach and keeps you alive, and nothing more. The other satisfies a hunger you might not have even known you had, or if you did know, you called it by another name — sadness, unfulfillment, fear. One achieves a corporeal goal, and that's the end of it. The other accomplishes something invisibly, secretly, silently, and though there is physical evidence of its work all around us, you have to be shrewd to recognize it.

It's the difference between making a social media post condemning sin and enveloping a sinner (the one at our dinner table, the one on the street, the one staring back at us in the mirror) with love and concern. It's the difference between simply going to Mass and living the Gospel. It's the difference between speaking to God and saying a prayer. It's the difference between telling someone they're wrong and telling them about the truth.

There's nothing wrong doing what is right because we long for heaven, and there's nothing wrong with eating manna if you're starving. But that alone isn't enough. We must also long for the bread of heaven, the bread that gives life to the world.

"Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.'" — John 6:35

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

If God knows everything we do, why do we need to go to Confession?

Answer:

Another term for the Sacrament of Confession is the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We go to this sacrament not only to confess our sins, but to be reconciled with God. Of course, this begs the question, "If I can pray to God on my own, why can't I be reconciled to God on my own?" In the seven sacraments, we recognize the importance of community. Sacraments like baptism or matrimony happen in the context of the wider church to remind us of the communal impact of our lives. We are not alone in our walk of faith!

We don't need to confess our sins in front of the whole community – thank God! But going to the Sacrament of Reconciliation is a tangible reminder that our sins affect not only ourselves and our relationship with God, but others as well. Jesus gave his Apostles authority to forgive sins in his name. Through this sacrament, we are really, truly forgiven by God Himself. We receive an outpouring of grace and strength to sin no more and our relationship with Christ and his Body, the Church, are restored.

Faith Formation Companion to Prayers in the Pew™

→ MONTHLY SYNOPSIS ←

August 2024 –In August the Church remembers and celebrates the great mystery of the Assumption of Mary into heaven. She was sinless from the first moment of her conception and after her death was taken by Christ – body and soul – to reign with Him in paradise. Let us live this month in prayer and devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, our Queen.

THE ANIMA CHRISTI

Among the many prayers that priests have composed throughout the centuries, one of these prayers stand out. The Spanish priest, St. Ignatius Loyola (1491-1556), was founder of the Jesuit order and a man who spent his life teaching people the value of their souls. His Spiritual Exercises is a retreat manual and privileged spiritual direction resource even to this day.

St. Ignatius' most famous prayer, the Anima Christi, is a marvelous spiritual reflection on the Passion of Christ. The title is Latin (translated "Soul of Christ") and is the first line of the prayer.

ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.

Body of Christ, save me.

Blood of Christ, inebriate me.

Water from Christ's side, wash me.

Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O good Jesus, hear me.

Within Thy wounds hide me.

Suffer me not to be separated from Thee.

From the malicious enemy defend me.

In the hour of my death call me.

And bid me come unto Thee.

That I may praise Thee with Thy saints

and with Thine angels.

Forever and ever. Amen.

Notice that the prayer touches on the entire sacred humanity of Jesus: His Body and Soul, as well as the Blood and water that flowed from His Heart. These elements are images of the Eucharist and symbolize the whole sacramental life of the Church.

The Anima Christi is also a very personal prayer to Jesus that anyone can pray with heartfelt devotion. It is also short enough for the average person to memorize! Together with St. Ignatius, we must ask Christ to save us from the power the evil one and to lead us through the problems of life to the Kingdom of God, where we hope to share eternity with Him.

SPIRITUAL CHALLENGE

This month, let us challenge ourselves to arrive at Mass early and spend some time recollecting our souls in preparation for the liturgy. Secondly, instead of rushing out of the church after Mass, make sure to spend five extra minutes giving thanks to the Lord so that we may reap the interior fruits of the divine Gift we have just received.

FAITH FUNDAMENTALS

The Golden Rule

We're accustomed to thinking about "rules" as limitations on what we want to do. But when we talk about the Golden Rule we must think of a "ruler" instead of a rule. It is like a yardstick that measures our own behavior.

In the Old Testament, behavior towards a neighbor was stated in the negative way: "Do not do to others what you yourself dislike" (Tobit 4:15). The teaching outlined a minimum requirement of justice: that is, don't hurt others.

The Lord's words in the New Testament, however, raise the standard much higher. We are to evaluate and do what is positively good for our neighbor, the way we would want them to do good to us.

"Do to others whatever you would have them do to you. This is the law and the prophets." ~ Matthew 7:12

In other words, we are to measure "good" and "bad" in our relationships by our own basic human need to be treated fairly. If it's good for me...it's probably also good for thee

BIBLE BASICS

Matthew 7:12 "Do to others whatever you would have them do to you. This is the law and the prophets."

Galatians 5:14 "For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'"

THE SCHOOL OF SAINTS

What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men. That is what love looks like.

~ St. Augustine of Hippo

CATECHISM CONNECTION

1776 Deep within his conscience man discovers a law which he has not laid upon himself but which he must obey. Its voice, ever calling him to love and to do what is good and to avoid evil, sounds in his heart at the right moment.

Praying with the National Eucharistic Revival

Becoming Missionaries of the Eucharist

Last month, the Bishops of the United States held the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, and it was attended by more than 50,000 people! The Eucharistic Renewal now demands that we become missionaries of faith, particularly in our belief that Jesus Christ is present Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Eucharist. There is no more tangible experience of God on this earth.

To encourage the Eucharistic fervor of all Catholics, we will continue to conclude our monthly newsletter focusing on our Eucharistic Lord. Here is a devotional phrase that we can say each time we are in His Presence:

"O Sacrament most holy, O Sacrament divine, all praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine!"
